COMMITTEE AGREES ON ANTI-TRUST BILL

Will Report Clayton Measure to Senate Wednesday.

ACTION LAST NIGHT

After Months of Deliberation Judiciary Committee Agrees on Final Revision of Administration Measure.

Washington, July 20.—After months of deliberation, the Senate judiciary committee tonight agreed upon final revision of the Clayton anti-trust bill. It will report the measure to the Senate Wednesday.

Most important of the amendments is to provide for a court review of orders issued by the Inter-State Commerce Commission or the proposed Inter-State Trade Commission against corporations found to have violated the trust stateutes.

The section of the original bill relating to price discrimination is amended so that discrimination in price made in good faith to meet competition and not intended to create monopoly could not be penalized. The section of the House bill which would make it unlawful to refuse to sell products of mines, oil or gas wells, or hydro-electric plants to bona fide applicants is stricken from the bill. The provision making it unlawful to lease or make contracts for sale of goods on condition that purchasers shall not use or deal in the products of a competitor is retained, with an amendment providing that the section shall apply to all products whether patented or unpatented."

Fraternal Orders Eliminated.

The exemption section, which in the House bill include fraternal, labor, consumers, agricultural and horticultural organizations instituted for mutual help and having no capital stock and not conducted for profit, is amended to eliminate fraternal and consumers' organizations from the list. The provision prohibiting holding companies is retained with slight amendments in phraseology.

The section of the House bill relating to interlocking directorates has been almost entirely re-written by the committee. It would provide that after two years from the approval of the act no common carrier engaged in inter-State commerce having on its board any officer who is an officer or has any direct interest in another corporation dealing in supplies or securities shall make "purchases of supplies or have any dealings in securities" with such corporations to the amount of more than $50,000 in any one year, except by competitive bidding under regulations to be prescribed by the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

Violation of this provision would be punishable by fine not to exceed $25,000 and imprisonment not to exceed two years. The committee retains the section of the House bill providing that no person shall at the same time be a director in any two or more corporations, any one of which has capital and surplus and undivided profits aggregating more than $1,000,000, of elimination of competition between such corporations by agreement would constitute a violation of the anti-trust laws.

Sections of the original bill relating to punishment for contempt are left intact in principle, except that the clause which would have legalized picketing on the premises of individuals or corporations in cases of strikes or lockout, is eliminated.

OKLAHOMA WOULD OUST TEXAS OIL COMPANY.

And Other Concerns Doing Business With Them From That State.

Atoka, Okla., July 20.—Proceedings were instituted in the district court here today asking that the Texas Company, an oil pipe line and purchasing corporation, and the Producers' Oil Company and Central Petroleum Company, producers of crude petroleum, be ousted from Oklahoma. The petition charges that the Texas Company as the parent corporation and the producing companies as subsidiaries violate the State anti-trust laws in their alleged combination.

Amos L. Beatty, of New York, general counsel for the Texas Company, replying to the petition contested the jurisdiction of the district court. Ten days was allowed for the filing of briefs.

K. P. CAMP DEDICATED.

International Camp of the Uniform Rank Near Terre Haute.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 20.—Camp Arthur J. Stobbart, seat of the International encampment of the Uniform rank, Knights of Pythias, was formally dedicated today. Governor Samuel M. Ralston, of Indiana, welcomed the visitors.

Heads of three departments of Knights of Pythias participated in the programme which was marked by short addresses and the raising of the flag of the commander-in-chief.

IN WORK OF MERCY.

Sister Teresa Had Gone to Asheville in Interest of Hospital.

Asheville, N. C., July 20.—The Rev. Mother Teresa, sister superior of the Sisters of Mercy in North Carolina, with headquarters at Belmont, near Charlotte, died here this morning at a local hospital, aged 62 years.

Thedeceased came here Saturday morning to complete arrangements for an addition to St. Joseph's Hospital. She was operated on yesterday, but little hope for her recovery was entertained.

MADAME CAILLAUX TELLS HER STORY OF THE MURDER

Wife of Former French Minister of Finance Gives Graphic Recital of Her Life's History—Regrets the Outcome of Shooting, But is Confident Her Husband Would Have Killed Editor of Figaro, if She Had Not.

Paris, July 20.—Mme. Henriette Caillaux, wife of Jos. Caillaux, once premier of France and former minister of finance, occupied the prisoner's enclosure in the Assize Court at the Palace of Justice today, and recited the circumstances leading up to the shooting on March 16 of Gaston Calmette, editor of Figaro.

Judge Lolis Albenal acted as president of the court; the procurator general, Jules Herbeaux, had charge of the prosecution, and Fernand Labori, the noted advocate who was closely identified with the Dreyfus case, was chief counsel for the defense.

Mme. Caillaux held the attention of the crowded court room for three hours. She told her story in short disconnected sentences but showed remarkable skill in marshaling the facts so as to present them in the best light for her cause.

Mme. Caillaux was a willing witness throughout. After she had concluded her narrative and was asked if there were anything she would like to add, she thrilled her listeners when she described vividly the agony she had endured because of the calumnies against herself and her husband.

"For three months I mounted Calvary," she said. "Such I do not wish to my worst enemy. No one can imagine what I went through. I feared for myself, for my husband, for my child. I feared for myself because if part of those letters were published, my deepest secret would be displayed before the world; my woman honor stand stripped and naked.

"A Woman's Honor."

"I was always taught that a woman's honor consisted in having her life as open as possible. My poor father, who last year told me that a wife who had a lover was a woman without honor, never would have set foot in my house had he known of my laison with M. Caillaux.

"We were reproached with being of the bourgeoise. It is true. I am a bourgeoise. When the letters were purloined, M. Caillaux and myself felt alike; we would have preferred to renounce our great happiness, rather than see our inner life blazoned to the world.

"I feared the publication of the letters. We had many friends, especially among the embassies, and in those circles people wished to humiliate and cast ridicule on my husband by the publication of two letters, addressed to two different women, signed "Thy Joe." They wished to throw contempt upon the head of a minister of the Republic, the chief of the radical party, and strike through him, the Republic.

"Finally, I did not wish to blush before my daughter; that is one thing a woman must not be asked to do. I deeply regret the present misfortune and I would have undergone anything in the world rather than have been the cause of it."

Her narrative was accompanied by eloquent gestures.

Mme. Caillaux told of the shooting in the Figaro office. Prior to this she had been asked by the judge regarding her interview with Ferdinand Monier, president of the tribunal of the Seine, if she had sought information as to whether the attacks on M. Calmette against her husband could be stopped.

M. Monier told her, she said, that this would be impossible; that one could only put up with it or defend one's self by one's own means. He had added, the witness asserted, that it was astonishing that with the French temperament, there were not more heads broken.

Maurice Chenu, attorney for M. Calmette's relatives, arose and said that M. Monier, before the examining magistrate, had denied giving utterance to anything of the sort.

Would Smash His Snout.

Mme Caillaux told of events on the day of the tragedy. "I informed M. Caillaux at lunch," she testified, "what M. Monier had said. He was very indignant and exclaimed: 'If that is how things are then I will smash his—'."

Mme. Caillaux hesitated a moment and added, "face."

Up jumped Chenu: "Oh you can say the word snout. It has been said 20 times during the investigation."

"Yes," replied Mme. Caillaux, "but there are words that are not uttered in public."

The judge repeated the expression —"Smash his snout," and the audience laughed.

Mme. Caillaux went on in trembling voice: "If my husband had said to me 'there is nothing to be done,' I should have looked upon him as a coward. I asked him 'when—today?'

"He said, 'No, at my own time'."

She raised her clasped hands and cried. "My God. My God. If you, you—", turning to the jury, "knew what I suffered that day. To think that my husband was going to kill a man!" She lowered her voice and half whispered: "I thought of committing suicide. Then I thought of trying to do something myself to stop that publication. I said to myself—I will make a scandal."

She put her handkerchief to her eyes and cried: "Ah, my God! If I had foreseen the horrible issue."

Explaining the circumstances of buying the pistol, Mme. Caillaux said she had no fixed idea of using it. When she reached home after conferring with M. Monier she was still debating as to what to do—whether to go to the Figaro offices and see Calmette or to a tea party. Finally she decided to leave a letter for her husband when she went to the Figaro.

Judge Albane read the letter which was as follows:

"My Beloved Husband:

"When I told you this morning of my interview with M. Monier regarding the law we have in France, no law to protect [illegible] against the calumnies of the pre[illegible] you said to me that one of these [illegible] you would smash the face of [illegible] ignoble Calmette. I realized that [illegible]our decision was irrevocable. My resolve was then made—I shall do justice. France and the Republic need you. I will do the deed.

"If this letter reaches you, you will know that I have done or have tried to do justice. Forgive me, but my patience is exhausted.

"I love and embrace you from the depths of my heart.

"Yours HENRIETTE."

Judge Albanel: "Explain this letter, which the prosecutor relies upon to establish premeditation."

Mme. Caillaux: "I never meant to say that in going to The Figaro office I had resolved to shoot Calmette. I had not made up my mind what I should do. I had made it perfectly clear to Miss Baxter (the English governess), that she must not give the letter to my husband unless I had not returned at seven."

Mme. Caillaux Breaks Down.

Coming to the scene of the tragedy Mme. Caillaux began to sob. For a time she was unable to utter a word.

The judge gently repeated to her the facts brought out in the magistrate's examination. She nodded her head. Finally he said:

"Come, come, Mme. Caillaux. What exactly happened?"

"I do not know," she said in a burst of tears. "I fired. I did not think I had hit him. It is frightful that those revolvers go off by themselves."

The people in the court room laughed, even the judges. Mme. Caillaux looked indignant and exclaimed: "It was all so quick. I ssure you I cannot tell precisely what happened."

She began sobbing again and cried out: "I regret it infinitely."

"Do you maintain your statement made to examining judge that you at no time intended to kill M. Calmette?"

"Certainly, sir, I only meant to make a scandal. I fired low in the direction of his feet. It is such a dreadful burden for me to carry all my life that I have killed a man!"

"Why should I have killed him? Never have I said that the punishment of Calmette should be death. Would I have thus renounced everything, the affection of my husband and my daughter, to go and kill?"

"In trying to avoid a complete catastrophe I have made it irreparable for myself; my daughter, my poor papa. I had done better to have allowed anything to have been published."

She fell back upon a chair shaken with sobs. The judge again inquired: "Have you anything more to say?"

"I regret it from the depths of my heart," replied Mme. Caillaux.

PLAGUE SITUATION IN NEW ORLEANS SERIOUS

Eighth Case Discovered There Yesterday.

Young White Man Employed in An Office on Canal Street, the Main Business Section of the City, Contracts Disease.

New Orleans, July 20.—The eighth case of bubonic plague was discovered here today. Charles H. Leaman, who resides at 2845 Barrone street, and is employed at 629 Canal street, the principal business street of the city, was taken ill Thursday and his case today was diagnosed as plague. Leaman's residence is 33 blocks from the point of the first infection and the retail store at which he was employed is nine blocks from the point where the first case was discovered on June 27.

Leaman was attacked by what is termed the bubonic type. This type cannot be transmitted to a human except through the agency of an insect, the flea being the principal purveyor of the disease. Fumigation of a place where a case is found positively prevents contagion from that point, according to physicians in charge of the work.

PROMINENT ASHEVILLE MAN ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE.

Alex H. Brooks Charged With Killing Frank B. Hugill.

Asheville, N. C., July 20.—Alex H. Brooks, prominent West Asheville merchant and real estate man, was placed on trial for his life this morning charged with the slaying of Frank B. Hugill, well known in fraternal circles, last May. The defense is asking for acquittal on a plea of self defense, claiming that the deacesed met death only after he had threatened the life of the defendant.

The killing was the result of a boys' baseball game in which the son of the defendant was hit by a ball thrown by the brother of the deceased. Bad blood was caused when the boys told of the injury sustained by the young ball player and the killing occurred as the deceased and the defendant were at a magistrate's court where the two boys were to be tried for simple assault.

BRITISH AND IRISH TO ATTEND MEETING

Called by King of England to Consider Trouble.

OVER HOME RULE BILL

John Redmond Declares That His Invitation Came in the Form of a Command from the King. He Will Obey.

London, July 20.—Premier Asquith, at the opening of the House of Commons today, announced that King George, "In view of the grave political situation, has considered it right to summon a conference of the representatives of the political parties, both British and Irish, to discuss the outstanding points of the problem of Irish government."

The Premier added that the Rt. Hon. James Lowther, speaker of the House of Commons, would, at His Majesty's request, preside over the conferences.

In view of this development, Premier Asquith said he would not ask the House to discuss today the bill to amend the Irish home rule bill.

Invitations to the conference have been accepted by two representatives, each of the regular opposition, the Ulster Unionists, the Irish Nationalists and the government.

Premier Asquith said he hoped the meetings of the conference would begin tomorrow.

John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, scarcely appeared to regard the proposed conference as attractive. He said:

"My colleagues and myself take no responsibility for the policy of calling this convention and I do not think I am called upon to express an opinion as to whether the result will prove useful or the contrary. The invitation came to John Dillon and myself in the form of a command from the King and as such we at once obeyed it."

Lawrence Connell, a Nationalist member, injected a warring note into the otherwise peaceful session today by asking if there was any precedent for the Premier undertaking to "place himself at the head of a conspiracy to defeat the wishes of the public." The question was ignored.

Heated Criticism.

Heated criticism of the proposed conference at Buckingham Palace between King George and the leaders of the Liberal, Unionist, Nationalist and Ulsterite parties on the Irish home rule bill was heard in Unionist clubs today. Unionist leaders expressed the view that their party again had been out-maneuvered by Premier Asquith. The initiative for the conference was taken by Premier Asquith and not by King George, according to the Unionists.

Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulsterites, took the calling of the conference calmly. He told his colleagues it could make no difference in his attitude. He said that under no circumstances would he accept less than the exclusion of Ulster from the provisions of the bill. Sir Edward added that he could do nothing else, as he had given his promise to the covenanters and intended to stand by it.

The parliamentary labor party strongly disapproves King George's intervention in a political controversy and has asked Premier Asquith to tell the King what they think of his action. The laborites held a private meeting tonight at which they passed a resolution stating they considered the King's action "undue interference on the part of the Crown and calculated to defeat the purposes of a parliament act."

SUFFRAGETTE MAKES SCENE IN COURT.

Declares She Wants to Put Bomb Under Magistrate's Court.

London, July 20.—"The next bomb I explode will be in the police courts and I hope it will be this one."

This was the parting shot from Annie Bell, militant suffragette, to the magistrate at Westminster as he committed her for trial today on the double charge of attempting to destroy on May 10th the Metropolitan Tabernacle in South London, and on July 12th the old church of St. John Evangelist.

Miss Bell enlivened the sitting of the court by singing the "Marseilles" and shouting and struggling with the court attendants. She chaffed the magistrate on the futility of sending her to prison, saying:

"I have been there ten times, but I have never yet served my sentence."

HIBERNIANS IN CONVENTION.

Several Thousand From Everywhere Gather at Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., July 20.—In 48th biennial convention the Ancient Order of Hibernians will convene here tomorrow morning, with between 3,000 and 4,000 members of the order present. Tonight the Norfolk Conventions Associations gave an informal reception attended by more than a thousand visitors. Every State in the union will be represented when the convention proper opens at noon, following solemn high mass at St. Mary's church.

The Hibernians will be in session until Saturday. Discussion of the Irish Home Rule situation promises to be one of the interesting subjects which will be considered.

Detroit, Mich., July 20.—Word was received in Detroit tonight that the Rev. Louis R. Palmont, the temperance worker who disappeared from this city five weeks ago and who was located at Rib Lake, Wis., Saturday will return to Detroit tomorrow night.

MOTORMAN SAYS HE WAS UNCONSCIOUS

When His Cars Crashed Into Train Near Norfolk

BEGIN INVESTIGATION

Inter-State and State Commerce Commissions Start Joint Probe Into Cause of Fatal Accident Last Friday Morning.

Norfolk, Va., July 20—Motorman W. K. Atkinson, who was in charge of the Ocean View electric train which crashed into a string of 71 empty coal cars on the Virginian Railway last Friday morning at Fairmont Park crossing, when seven persons were killed and 81 injured, late this afternoon made a sworn statement in which he declared he was unconscious for a few seconds before the collision. He said he regained consciousness when about a car length from the coal train, and then reversed his power.

Atkinson's statement will be submitted tomorrow morning to the investigating board composed jointly of representatives of the Inter-State Commerce Commission and State Corporation Commission, which this morning began its inquiry into the wreck.

After reviewing his day's work, Atkinson's affidavit takes up the last run of the wrecked train and continues:

"I remember distinctly blowing my crossing signals for Simpson's crossing, which is about an eighth of a mile north of the Virginian Railroad crossing, and I remember shutting off my current.

Was Unconscious.

"From this time, for some reason I know not why, I lost consciousness until I was about a car length from the Virginian Railway crossing, when I regained consciousness and saw the train crossing ahead of me and the signals displayed against me.

"I reversed then, but of course, it was too late to do any good and we struck the Virginian Railway train."

Atkinson said he had been feeling badly Thursday night. A report offered to the commission by the claim department of the traction company showed 89 persons had reported injuries of more or less serious nature, and that there were 100 passengers on the two cars of the wrecked trolley train.

Judge William F. Rhea, of the State corporation commission, presided at today's investigation which received official reports as to condition of motor equipment on the electric car. This was declared in good order. Virginian Railway employes testified the safety gates were set against the electric line, with four red light burning brightly.

INVESTIGATE CHARGES OF DISCRIMINATION

Does "Coal Trust" Control Southern Railway?

Sub-Committee Told That Charleston and Ports South Are Discriminated Against in Favor of Northern Ports.

Washington, July 20.—Edwin J. Berwind, of New York, director and officer in many railway companies, steamship lines and coal companies, was charged today by B. L. Dulaney, of Bristol, Tenn., with being responsible for the failure of the Southern Railway to permit Charleston, Fernandina, Jacksonville and Savannah from developing into important coal shipping ports.

Mr. Dulaney was the only witness heard today by the Senate sub-committee, which is investigating the charge that the Morgan interests are controlling the coal rates of the Southern Railway and developing the Pennsylvania coal fields and ports between Norfolk and New York to the detriment of ports further south.

Through a system of interlocking directorates, Mr. Dulaney charges, the "coal trust" has been able to control the lines tapping important coal fields in Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky and to impose freight rates which make it impossible for coal from those fields to move to Charleston and other Southern ports which now are supplied with Pennsylvania or West Virginia coal shipped by water from Baltimore or Norfolk.

CARRANZA AGREES TO AN ARMISTICE

Will Suspend Hostilities During Transfer.

OF FEDERAL AUTHORITY

Constitutionalist Chief Gives United States Government His Views Through John R. Silliman—Another Break.

Washington, July 20.—General Carranza today informed the United States government he was ready to declare suspension of hostilities against the government of Provisional President Carbajal pending negotiations with his representatives for the transfer of authority at Mexico City to the Constitutionalists.

The Constitutionalist chief expressed his views to John R. Silliman, personal representative of President Wilson, and Consul General Hanna and Vice Consul Robertson, who interviewed him at Monterey. He said he would receive the commission of three appointed by Carbajal to discuss peace.

Secretary Bryan announced the receipt of a message from an American representative with the comment that the prospects for peace now were very favorable.

General Carranza is insistent, however, that the surrender of the Carbajal government shall be unconditional. It is his intention to give safety to the people generally but to prosecute leaders in the plot through which Madero was overthrown. Most of the latter, however, already have left Mexico.

No Official Information.

No official information has reached Secretary Bryan as to whether the Carbajal commission has left Mexico City.

Incidentally Secretary Bryan said that the protocol signed at Niagara Falls agreeing to recognize a government set up by agreement of the two Mexican factions would become effective if such an agreement should be reached in the proposed conference.

Secretary Bryan intimated that while a report of a break between Carranza and Villa had reached him he was seeking through consular sources to obtain authentic information.

During the day Jules Jusserand, the French ambassador repeated his inquiry to Mr. Bryan concerning the French clergymen who had been imprisoned by the Constitutionalists at Catacetas. Mr. Bryan said urgent representation about them had been made to Carranza but no answer had yet been received.

Huerta Leaves Puerto.

Puerto Mexico, July 20.—The German cruiser Dresden, with former President Huerta and his family and former War Minister Blanquet, Senora Blanquet and their daughter aboard, sailed at 7:30 o'clock this evening for Jamaica.

The departure of the former chief executive was without incident, there not being even any shouts of "Goodbye" to him from the dock.

Dealt With as Criminals.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 20.—Every man who took an active part in the events leading to the assassination of President Francisco I. Madero, "will be dealt with as a criminal," according to a telegram received here today from the headquarters of Gen. Carranza. The telegram was sent to Adolpho Carrillo, Constitutionalist consul, and was signed by the secretary of foreign relations Fabela.

"They must be used as examples," says the telegram, "and punished as other criminals are punished. It is due the people of Mexico who have suffered so much as a result of this revolution."

The telegram reported that Gen. Argumedo and other Federals had appealed to Carbajal for assurances of protection.

Special Spanish Representative.

El Paso, Texas, July 20.—Manuel Walls Medina, who bears credentials as a special emissary from King Alfonso of Spain, arrived here today. He came to look after the interests of Spanish subjects in Mexico.

Senor Medina today conferred with Constitutionalists agents here regarding adjustments of Spanish claims.

He will proceed to Monterey to attach himself to General Carranza's headquarters in a capacity similar to that of George Carothers, special agent of the State Department at Washington.

More Trouble Breaks Out.

Douglas, Ariz., July 20.—Fresh trouble between the military and civil governments in Sonora was reported here today with the arrest of Major Carlos Plank, at Hermilisso by order of Governor Maytorna. He was released later and tried to reach the border in an automobile, but was caught by mounted police. It was said Maytorna threatened to execute him as a traitor.

News on West Coast.

On Board U. S. S. California, La Paz, Mexico, July 19, via Wireless to San Diego, Cal., July 20.—News that General Huerta had planned to leave Mexico was communicated to the Federal garrison today by F. D. Moore, British consul, in the hope that the information would bring about a cessation of hostilities.

As soon as the Constitutionalist troops under General Alvarado entered Guayamas on Saturday a government under Governor Maytorna was established. Ten Federal partisans were imprisoned. Among the prisoners is Senor Martinez, one of the owners of the Naviera Line, on four vessels on which the Federal garrison is steaming southward.

The fire department was called out this morning at 1:25 o'clock on account of a small blaze at No. 714 Swan street at the home of Sarah McNair, colored. The fire was caused by a defective flue and the damage amounted to about $15.

NEW HAVEN'S LAST CHANCE HAS GONE

Government Will File Suit in a Few Days.

MAY INDICT DIRECTORS

Attorney General is Expected to Make Attempt to Have New York Grand Jury Bring Indictment Against Former Members.

Washington, July 20.—Civil suit to separate the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company from its subsidiary rail, trolley and steamship lines will be brought by Attorney General McReynolds in the United States District court at New York within the next few days.

A final effort today to settle the problem without litigation ended in failure, although Attorney General T. W. Gregory, special assistant in charge of the case, and a committee of New Haven directors were in conference many hours. The committee came to discuss the sale of the Boston & Maine stock owned by the New Haven. It desired this sale to be made free of conditions imposed by the State of Massachusetts and is said to have declared that an unconditional sale of the Boston & Maine stock would insure a price $10,000,000 above what the New Haven might otherwise hope to get.

The New Haven case will be laid before President Wilson and the cabinet tomorrow. It is not doubted that the department's action will be approved. It is thought that on the heels of the suit will come an effort to have a Federal grand jury in New York to return indictments against many directors of the New Haven who served in the days when it was building up a system which the attorney general holds is a combination in restraint of trade. Both the civil and criminal actions will be taken under the Sherman law. The outcome of these proceedings may determine the value of the Sherman law as a criminal statute.

No Strong Resistance.

To the civil suit the New Haven is not expected to make any strong resistance.

In the government's bill the New Haven will be charged with being a monopoly in control of New England's transportation, with being a combination in restraint of trade and in violation of the Sherman law. The department is expected to ask that the court separate the New Haven from the old New England acquired many years ago. The court also will be asked to divorce the New Haven from its so-called Sound Steamship Lines which ply Long Island Sound and run from New York to most of the ports along the lower New England coast.

Features of the agreement made last March with chairman Elliott and New Haven attorneys which the bill is expected to follow, are:

That the New Haven be required to divest itself of control of the Boston & Maine Railroad; that it give up its holdings in the Connecticut, Rhode Island trolley lines and the Berkshire trolley lines and its minority interest in the Eastern Steamship Corporation. There will be the customary plea for an order requiring the New Haven to dissolve, and for a mandate to prevent a future combination of similar character.

President Hustis, A. T. Hadley, T. Dewitt Cuyler, were the committee that made the final effort to settle the case without litigation but their suggestions were not accepted.

In a statement issued at the close of the day President Hustis plainly indicated that filing of the government suit was expected.

Only One Difficulty.

The difficulty in the negotiations has been over tht disposition of the Boston & Maine stock controlled by the New Haven. Massachusetts, which always possessed the right to buy it, recently enacted legislation permitting its sale but on the condition that on each share sold this right be plainly set forth.

The New Haven directors said they were unable to accept this condition. They suggested that the Department of Justice take the matter in court and ask for a decree, to which they would assent, disposing of eevry issue but that of the Boston & Maine.

In the meantime they proposed that this stock be turned over to trustees who should sell it without the condition imposed by Massachusetts. They indicated that its unrestricted sale would mean $10,000,000, to the New Haven. Attorney General McReynolds did not like the plan. Moreover it was said at the department that the March agreement provided for the sale of the Boston & Maine stock, but made no mention of conditions imposed by Massachusetts. Department officials take the position that the New Haven has not lived up to this agreement.

At the conclusion of the conference President Hustis gave out this statement approved by his directors:

"The directors find themselves unable to recede from the position which they have taken and presume that the attorney general will therefore decide to file his bill in order to determine the questions between the company and the government. But it is hoped that after the bill is filed it will be possible to make such arrangements as will reduce the points of difference to a minimum and secure a prompt settlement of whatever remains at issue. The conference was marked by straightforwardness and friendliness on both sides."

Bluefield, W. Va., July 20.—W. S. Becker, assistant to President L. E. Johnson, of the Norfolk & Western Railroad, died at his home here tonight.

PLAYERS' FRATERNITY AND ORGANIZED BALL NEAR BREAKING POINT.

PLAYERS FRATERNITY ISSUES AN ULTIMATUM TO THE BIG LEAGUES

Members Will No Longer Consider Themselves Under Contract After Wednesday, July Twenty-Second—Unqualified Ultimatum Received by August Herrmann, Chairman of National Commission, Late Yesterday Afternoon from Players.

Cincinnati, O., July 20.—An unqualified ultimatum that all members of the Baseball Players' Fraternity no longer will consider themselves under contract after July 22, was received late today by August Herrmann, chairman of the National Baseball Commission.

The letter, written by President David L. Fultz, of the Baseball Players' Fraternity, follows in full:

"August Herrmann, Chairman National Commission:

"Dear Sir:—

"Inasmuch as organized baseball sees fit to violate Section 18, and several other sections of the Cincinnati agreement, which agreement is a part of every player's contract, the board of directors of the Baseball Players' Fraternity has authorized me to inform you that on and after Wednesday, July 22, the members of the organization will no longer consider themselves under contract.

"Very truly,

(Signed) DAVID L. FULTZ,
"President."

Shortly after receiving this letter, Chairman Herrmann, as president of the Cincinnati Baseball Club, called the members of the team together and recited to them his version of the controversy that has arisen. Mr. Herrmann said:

Herrmann Makes Statement.

"The friction between the National Commission and the Baseball Players' Fraternity has arisen over the decision that sent Player Kraft to the Nashville Class A club. Kraft was originally drafted from Nashville by Brooklyn, then transferred to the Boston Nationals and later signed a contract with the Newark International League club. Nashville immediately put in a claim for his services, under Section 9 of what is known as the Cincinnati agreement. This provides that any Class A player drafted by a major league can be claimed by the Class A team from which he was drafted, providing he is sent back to the minor leagues.

"This section is practically a condition of Section 18, which Mr. Fultz claims we have violated. Section 18 provides that when a player is sent from a major league to a minor league club he shall first be offered to Class AA for a stipulated price, and if he is not wanted there to Class A. It has been my contention that this section does not apply to drafted players, and I have a letter from Mr. Fultz under date of January 26, in which he says that Section 18 shall not apply to drafted players.

"I suggested to Mr. Fultz that this case be taken up by a committee from each side and threshed out, and an amicable agreement be reached. Then, after the baseball season is over, if it is the desire of the majority of parties concerned that the Cincinnati agreement be so amended as to include drafted players in Section 18, I will be one of the first ones to vote for it.

"At present, with the rules to which Mr. Fultz and the fraternity have agreed, the commission cannot see its way clear to award this player to any other club than Nashville.

"In Mr. Fultz's letter he stated that an agreement is a part of every player's contract. I do not believe this is true, and I think if you players will go home tonight and look over your contract you will find that there is nothing of this kind in them."

"I have put this case up to you in as fair a manner as I know how.

"Now, it is my desire to know if you boys, members of the Cincinnati baseball team, will no longer consider yourselves under contract to this club after Wednesday. In all fairness to me, I want to ask you to let me know by tomorrow night your decisions."

The ball players, after holding a fifteen-minute session, told Mr. Herrmann they would let him know their decision by tomorrow night.

On Verge of Open Break.

New York, July 20.—Organized baseball and the Baseball Fraternity appear to be on the verge of an open break regarding the status and disposition of Clarence R. Kraft, who recently declined to obey an order by the commission to report from the Newark International League club to the Nashville club of the Southern Association and was suspended.

The disposition of this player has been the source recently of both correspondence and personal interviews between representatives of the National Commission, the National League and the Players' Fraternity. At a meeting of the board of directors of the Players' Fraternity yesterday, President D. L. Fultze of that organization was instructed to prepare a letter which is generally termed in baseball circles an ultimatum, from the fraternity to organized baseball. The letter addressed to ..ugust Herrmann, chairman of the National Commission, said unless the demands of the Federation in the case of Kraft were agreed to, the members of the federation on and after Wednesday would no longer consider themselves under contract.

Johnson Takes Hand.

President Ban Johnson, of the American League, today called a meeting of the American League club owners for tomorrow morning. Johnson today stated that if an order calling for a strike of American League players is carried out, he would cause the immediate closing of all American League baseball parks until such time as the players agreed to return under such conditions and penalties as might be imposed by the league.

President Fultze, of the Federation, tonight issued a statement defending the stand of the Players' Fraternity. It said the Kraft case, while now the main point at issue, was only one of the causes of the differences between the federation and organized baseball. It declared the Cincinnati agreement, entered into between players and magnates last year, had been violated by club owners dozens of times and that a few of the magnates have not even made a pretense of living up to the agreement."

It added that players had been released without the required preliminary notice or suspended without pay and no reason for their suspension assigned, and that Secretary Farrell, of the National board of arbitration, to whom five or six cases of players' claims had been submitted had not acknowledged receipt of any of them.

"Weeks ago," the statement of Fultze says, "we requested of the commission that the Kraft matter be arbitrated, but the request was not even replied to. We stand ready to arbitrate it today or at any time. Mr. Johnson says he will close his parks rather than crawl. Mr. Johnson will close no parks."

Fultze Denies Power.

President Fultze denied emphatically that he had the power to call a strike or walk-out of members of the Players' Fraternity. He said this authority was vested in the board of directors. The idea that the Federal League was in any way backing the Players' Federation was scouted by National and American League magnates in this city today. It appeared to be the belief of the followers of baseball that the Kraft case would be settled by the acquisition of Kraft through purchase by one of the major league clubs or by submitting the case to a board of arbitration.

Ban Johnson said he received his first intimation of the proposed strike yesterday. He immediately called a meeting of the American League club owners for tomorrow. Mr. Johnson said:

"The club owners of the American League are a unit in this matter. The Kraft case does not affect the American League. It is purely a National League matter.

"If the players of the various clubs in the American League strike on Wednesday, it will be a direct violation of their contract. If they walk out, we will close every one of our parks and not reopen until such time as we have convinced the ball players that they do not run the American League. If the players fraternity calls out our players on a strike it is war to a finish between the American League and this players' organization.

"The ball players under contract to our league cannot run the league or dictate the policy of its club owners or officials. The sooner this is understood by the players the better it will be for them; otherwise, they will be without employment so far as we are concerned for some time to come."

No Occasion for Strike.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 20.—John K. Tener, president of the National League said regarding the talked-of strike:

"There is no occasion for strike or dissension and no question has arisen that would justify the players in taking such a course."

BILL KILLIFER

Red McGhee says:

A two-time jumpin' jack was Bill. He jumped across the Fed league hill an' then jumped back again. An' then he had to jump some more to keep on dodgin' a half score o' process-servin' men. The Phillies chuckled: "Bill is ours." The Chifeds hiked for legal powers to rule Bill couldn't play. Judge Sessions in Grand Rapids, Mich., said: "Nit, you guys don't get your wish. The game ain't played that way."

The Chifed gang appealed o' course, but meanwhile Killifer, ol' horse, was playin' right along. Each day he gits behind his mask an' goes about his catchin' task like not a thing was wrong. The higher court in Cincy town horned in an' threw the Chifeds down jus' like the low court judge. So Bill plays on with Dooin's nine an' tries his doggone best to shine. The Feds can't make him budge.

He's worth the scrap they made, at that. He ain't no Ty Cobb at the bat—but backstop? Say, he's there! Last year he caught near every game. His phiz'd hit hit the hall o' fame without this court affair. The hammer gang may treat him rough for this here double jumpin' stuff—he'll get a lot 'o knocks. But while Bill keeps on playin' ball Red Dooin's laugh will drown 'em all, it's safe to bet your socks.

GREENSBORO VOTES TODAY.

On $100,000 Bond Issue for Street Improvement—Railroad Repairing.

Greensboro, N. C., July 20.—Voters of Greensboro will tomorrow determine whether or not the city will issue $100,000 in boads for street improvements. A special registration was ordered several days ago and about 800 people registered for the election. It is confidently believed that the bonds will carry. All of the city organizations have endorsed the proposed issue and several committees are working to get out the voters and have them vote for the issue.

More than 175 men are at work on the Southern Railway roadbedy between here and Mt. Airy, and the line is being brought into excellent shape. The work was not commenced, however, until citizens along the road and at Mt. Airy made an investigation of the cross ties and found many of them rotten, which was given publicity, and aroused both citizens and railroad people.

GAIN SEVEN MILLIONS A YEAR IN RESOURCES

North Carolina State Banks are Prospering

The "Army Worm" Appears In Raleigh Section—Governor Revokes Order for Special Term of Court in Edgecombe.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 20.—North Carolina's 420 State banks, which are under the direct supervision of the North Carolina Corporation Commission, show in the summary of their condition at the close of business, June 4, just issued by the commission, an aggregate of $89,236,595 resources, an increase in resources for the past year of $7,084,365. The aggregate capital stock is $11,276,418, a gain of $449,450 for the year.

The surplus fund is $3,625,279, a gain of $647,000 for the year. The total deposits at this time is $62,448,272, a gain of $3,713,451 for the year. The savings deposits aggregate $13,993,717, a again of $1,376,611 for the year.

"Army Worms" Appear.

Reports are coming in to the State Department of Agriculture from several parts of the State that there are threatening appearances of the dreaded "army worm" that are already injuring crops. The most serious reports come from a number of farms in the Raleigh section. The department will take steps to co-operate with the farmers in efforts to stay the advance of this destroyer of crops, sending experts from the department to investigate the presence of the worm and take a hand in efforts to stay their inroads.

Special Term Annulled.

Governor Craig made an order this morning annuling his formed order for a special term of criminal court in Edgecombe county for the trial of William Holland and Fletcher Winstead, the negro youths charged with criminal assault on Miss Annie Daughtridge and now in the State's prison for safe keeping. The revocation of this order is at the request of the Edgecombe county commissioners on the ground that they do not care to incur the expense of $100 per week for the salary of the judge for the special term when this can be avoided by waiting until the regular term scheduled for November 2. Judge Ferguson was to hold the special court.

CHRISTIAN CHAUTAUQUA AT VIRGINIA BEACH OPENS.

Members of Elon College Faculty Take Important Part in Program.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elon College, N. C., July 20.—Quite a large delegation of Elon people left this morning for the Chautauqua and School of Methods for Christian Workers, which assembles at Virginia Beach at 8 o'clock tonight. In the party were Dr. J. W. Wellons, Dr. J. O. Atkinson, Dr. W. C. Wicker, Dr. J. U. Newman, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Randolph, Miss Annie Watson, Mrs. W. P. Lawrence, Rev. J. O. Cox, Mr. J. Fuller Johnson and President and Mrs. W. A. Harper.

Dr. J. O. Atkinson, the college pastor, is to preach the convocational sermon this evening at 8 o'clock. His subject is to be "Christ's Unfinished Work."

Dr. J. U. Newman, of the theological department of the college, is to give two lectures before the Chautauqua. Dr. W. C. Wicker, of the philosophy department, will also give two lectures, and President Harper will speak three times on teacher training and Christian Endeavor work. Dr. Atkinson is also scheduled to give one of the evening platform lectures before the Chautauqua.

This Chautauqua is to be in session until the 26th of July and will hold its sessions in the Chautauqua building of the Baptist church, located at Virginia Beach. It is expected that 1,000 delegates will be present in attendance on these sessions and it is also understood that this Chautauqua is to be a permanent feature with the Christians from this time on.

MRS. MABEL THOMPSON IS DISCHARGED AFTER HEARING.

But Case May be Presented to Grand Jury and Indictment Asked.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 20.—Mrs. Mabel Thompson, charged with an attempt to burn on July 10th the Public Service Company building, formerly Benbow hotel, was this afternoon discharged by Acting Police Judge Swift, rather to the surprise of those who have followed the case. It is said that the facts will be laid before the grand jury at September court and indictments asked.

Evidence of witnesses showed that until late on the night of the fire five young men were in Mrs. Thompson's room, that at 4 o'clock she was found in a stupor and fire burning at three places in the room. The fire was quickly extinguished.

O. A. Starbuck, connected with the Internal Revenue, with headquarters at Richmond, father of the woman, was here for the trial.

WM. ROBT. BOND A SUICIDE

Young Man of Kinston Shoots Himself in Head—Bad Health Probable Cause.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Kinston, N. C., July 20.—Wm. Robert Bond, 24 years old, shot himself through the head at the home of his grandmother here today. The only reason that could be advanced was worry over his health. Bond had been suffering with lagrippe.

Bond was connected with prominent families and was a partner in a meat business with two brothers. The three made their home with the grand parent. A brother, suspicious of the youth's actions, had just secured a promise from him that he would do nothing rash, when the fatal shot was fired.

INCREASING INTEREST IN CHAPMAN MEETINGS.

News of Interest from Presbyterian Summer Home.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Montreat, N. C., July 20.—Thursday evening, Dr. Chapman preached on the pathos of forsaking Christ from the text: "Demas hath forsaken me." On the other hand he said there is no joy, no thrill like that of a man who knows he is doing God's will.

Friday morning his theme was "Three Phases of Evangelism," and said he would not advise any one to become a professional evangelist till God pushed him into it. Pastoral evangelism, said he, is the ideal and the highest form of evangelism. In order to be successful the pastor must have a positive, personal and pointed message—must not say soft things about sin. Above all, his heart must be right with God. Personal evangelism is also greatly needed, and any Christian can do this kind of work, and it would be possible to stir the church and shake the Southland when God's will is done in this respect.

Friday evening was a great meeting. Dr. Chapman spoke about the "Surrendered Life." He said the surrender must be voluntary, unselfish and irrevocable, and must be a full surrender. If you hold on to one part there will be no blessing. If not willing about everything, are you willing to be made willing? He quoted the testimony of Gen. Booth and D. L. Moody to prove that such a surrender pays. In an after meeting, held in a corner of the auditorium, sixty ministers and quite a number of elders and deacons signed cards saying they proposed to surrender themselves to God for a more perfect service this year than ever before in life.

Saturday morning his theme was the Holy Spirit, with special reference to Enduement for Service. His text was "Have Ye Received the Holy Ghost Since Ye Believed?" He said this was a searching question and tranforming in its power, when rightly answered. He said it meant full surrender, full appreciation and full appropriation of what God intended we should have. We must not only receive the Spirit, but keep feeding our souls. God's Word is the best food. He gave Mr. Moody's five rules for Bible study: 1. Study it through; 2, Pray it in; 3, Put it down; 4, Work it out; 5, Pass it on.

Dr. Andrew Blackwood gave his last lecture Friday morning on "Jesus Christ, the Matchless Prophet," which many considered the best effort he had ever made on the Montreat platform. He showed that Jesus fulfilled all the conditions of the prophetic office, and was far greater than all the prophets, because He was the truth incarnate, His prophecy was timeless, and infallible. Above all, He was the final prophet—God's last word to the world.

Not Allowed to See Each Other—Charles Bullard's Body Found.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 20.—Hiram Sykes, Jesse Hartis, alias Jesse Horton, two of the Charlotte gunmen who shot Chief Elliott and Patrol Driver A. B. Moore Saturday morning, are resting comfortably in the Guilford jail, where they were brought for safe keeping at the direction of Judge T. J. Shaw. They are kept in separate cells and are not permitted to see one another or talk to anyone.

The body of Charles Bullard, who was drowned Saturday evening, came to the surface of White Oak pond late yesterday afternoon, following blasts of dynamite. Two blasts were fired and twenty minutes after this was done the body rose to the surface. The funeral will be held in Elkin, where the body was carried today. He is survived by a young widow.

THEATRICAL

The theatre of both quality and quantity—the charming Grand—certainly had them "coming" yesterday. Each day this week there will be an immense amount of films, plus new and special music. There will also be one of those extraordinary special features on Thursday. Watch for it.

Five of the biggest of films will be flashed on the screen today, and each comes as the freshest product of a recognized film concern. Many popular stars will also appear. Heading the joy riding procession will be Kalem's big success, "The Coming of Lord Wolf." It is a stirring, novel Indian tale and in the cast will appear Princess Mona Darkfeather, Art Ortega, Big Moon and Lone Bear.

But running this big film a close second will be Lubin's "Circus Time in Toyland." Every child should be taken to see this great circus film. It is something swell.

"A Tango Tragedy" is also a timely hit for today, and those who love the tango should behold it. Nothing but fun, of course.

Edison also offers his best today in "Mother and Wife." It is an intense dramatic, with a big moral, and among the stars appearing in the story are Edward Earle, Lettie Ford, Sallie Crute and Ben Wilson.

Here's still another starry one today. It is the latest Broncho Billy film. It is "Broncho Billy's Cunning," and, of course, Mr. G. M. Anderson appears in the stellar role.

Today at The Bijou.

Today's rousing big bill at the popular photoplay house promises to be one of the biggest hot weather specialties ever produced in a motion picture theatre, and with the perfect ventilation of Wilmington's largest and most comfortable theatre, promises to play to crowded houses all through the day and night.

Heading the programme is a mammoth two-reel Imp dramatic release, "The Lady of The Island," depicting the romance and adventure met with by some boys on a campaing trip to an island. Featured in this big special release is Miss Dorothy Philips, Miss Ruth Donnelly, Frank Crane and Alexander Gaden, four of the biggest photoplay stars now on the stage. Among the stirring features of the play is a race between a motor boat and an eight-oared shell, containing college athletes. The college boys seek to rescue a beautiful girl, while those in the motor boat seek to prevent the rescue. Practically all the scenes are laid out of doors, and it is rich in natural settings, boating, hunting, yachting and camping. The story is rife with surprising twists.

Coming next on the bill for today is a thrilling two-reel society drama, "Golden Dross," a production of the Reliance Feature Players. This is a brand new story of society life, and its "golden dross" will be found extremely interesting. Not a dull moment in it and will hold your attention throughout.

A big Joker comedy featuring Max Asher and Bob Vernon is "Captain Kidd's Priceless Treasure," and is a scream from beginning to end. It will be irresistible, to everyone, and is one of the best ever.

"Mabel's Nerve" is a rousing Keystone comedy featuring Miss Mabel Normand, and is fully up to the standard of these big laugh numbers by the Keystone Comedy Players.

WILSON TO HAVE REAL CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN.

Citizens Gratified at Honor That Comes to Colonel Bruton.

Wilson, N. C., July 20.—With the Wilson Welfare League behind the town authorities, it looks like a real "Clean-up" campaign will come and come quickly. The league has perfected its organization with Charles L. Coon, president, and Mrs. J. R. McLean, secretary-treasurer. On the board of directors are: Messrs. E. A. Darden, John F. Bruton, Ernest Deans, H. D. Brown and Lawrence Brett; Mesdames George Hackney, H. C. MacNair, E. G. Rawlings, George W. Stanton and W. A. Finch.

In addition committees on outlook, on health and sanitation, child welfare, and charities and corrections have been appointed. In the very beginning the league proposes a campaign for a "sanitary officer" and also a publicity campaign in which the names of the owners of unsanitary premises are to be published.

Friends of Col. John F. Bruton, of the First National Bank, are happy over the selection of the Wilson man as one of the Class A directors of the Federal reserve bank at Richmond. The news came from Washington not as a surprise, yet it was received joyfully. Wilson was sure that Colonel Bruton would be chosen but the member banks had to elect and interest followed the election.

MISS HANNAH SEAVEY DEAD.

Well Known and Highly Esteemed Lady of Sampson, Passes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Alpine, N. C., July 20.—Miss Hannah Seavey, sister of Mr. Jeremiah Seavey, died Saturday at her country home in Sampson count, following a brief illness. She was 64 years of age, a graduate from St. Mary's College, Raleigh, and a member of the Episcopal church. She spent a most useful life as a teacher.

The funeral was conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. T. P. Noe, of Wilmington, and the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground. Throngs of people attended the funeral many from a distance, and probably a hundred of her former pupils.

Miss Seavey was from an old and aristocratic family. She, with her brother and sister, Miss Mary Seavey, who preceded her to the grave just a few months, lived in one of the most beautiful homes in Sampson county, whose genuine Southern hospitality could not be surpassed and where people loved to visit.

Many were the expressions of sorrow at her departure. She was a most estimable lady with a generous heart, thoroughly unselfish, and loved especially for her bright disposition. This community feels a distinct loss, though her influence will always live.

WATERMELON CROP FINE.

Carload Shipments from Mount Olive Local Market Flooded.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., July 20.—The unusually dry seasons this year have certainly had no bad effects on the watermelon yield. Several carloads have already left here for Northern markets, and the local market has been literally flooded with the delicious "fruit of the vine" for several days. And they have been of an unusually large average size and of a splendid flavor.

Now is the time when country hay rides and watermelon cuttings are in vogue.

We know the reason Huerta quit. He had to quit to keep from getting caught by Villa.

Now that Carranza and Villa have made up and Huerta has resigned, who Woodrow Wilson?

From his recent endorsement of woman suffrage one would think the Secretary of State a much younger man.

Many a North Carolinian loves the guy who put gin in Virginia but he has little feeling for him who is trying to take it out.

Many a speech made in Congress is not an argument. It is windjamming on the part of some and sophistry on the part of others.

A society editor writes: "The world is full of beauties." Some beauties are also full of the world. "Pretty is as pretty does."

If enough counter-revolutions continue to break out in Mexico and the ammunition lasts, there will be no need for Uncle Sam to intervene.

President Wilson, having been on the sick list for several days, has completely recovered and is on the job again. Shake!

The politician who is afraid of his own shadow probably has good reasons for being afraid that it might do something to him.

In a State where woman suffrage prevails, or is likely to prevail, a politician would not dare to ruin his chances by standing up for men only.

Does the purchase of a four hundred dollar bath tub by General Villa indicate that he is becoming civilized or that he intends to clean up Mexico?

A strawberry grower had some fine July strawberries on the market a few days ago. He says they can be grown every month till October if the grower takes the trouble.

It is said that horses are coming back in fashion, but we hardly think any of our lady friends can be persuaded to let any old-fashioned horse come back in fashion with them.

The New Haven road is to be given "one more chance," but it is hardly to be expected that financiers will come to its assistance on only one chance to be divided between them and it.

Don't laugh at our old friend Huerta for getting cold feet on his bravadical assertion that he would die with his boots on. He may do it yet, even if he has picked out Europe as the safest place to take chances on it.

The Republicans of Surry county have met and nominated a full county ticket. The Republican party in Surry consists of many of the unweanable faithful, most of whom is Jack Albright, formerly of Wilmington. When the last of the Mohicans counted, it is quite likely that Jack will insist on being the one to be picked up in the last ditch.

A lot of Louisiana Democrats want to get protection on sugar and are willing to give Roosevelt a third term for it. The colonel will observe, however, that they do not love Teddy less but sugar more. They seem to prefer sugar to principle, and, therefore, must have found themselves in the wrong pew, if they expected to stay in it for what they could get out of it.

A man who tries to slip into a dark room about 3 A. M. will find out that some rocking chair has decided to waylay him as usual. A rocking chair has only two rockers, but when it does its work in the dark it seems to have borrowed a cowcatcher from the fast express. When a rocking chair goes up against a belated homecomer it can hardly expect him to speak to it in terms of humility.

CONGRESS AND WHAT IT GETS FOR ITSELF.

The majority of senators and representatives voted themselves 20 cents per mile for traveling expenses in spite of the fact that three cents per mile is more than the actual fare paid by most of them. Any of them can buy a thousand-mile ticket for two cents a mile. Congress, therefore, is guilty of what all the country refers to as the "mileage grab." In North Carolina when a fellow gets more than is coming to him it is called graft. Congress does not wish to consider itself a grafter. It considers others as grafters.

If a drummer pads his expense account, and his house catches up with him, he is discharged because he is dishonest and unworthy of trust, but a congressman can pad his and go back home and ask his people to send him back to Congress at the rate of 20 cents a mile going and coming. However, if the average self-respecting drummer were a congressman and were to receive a government warrant for his mileage expense at the rate of 20 cents a mile, he would decide that "it's a shame to take the money." In that instance "take" is the right word.

Congress is in session and it is also in 20 cents a mile less about two cents a mile for railroad fare. A congressman can travel 100 miles on a $2.50 ticket, eat a $2.50 dinner on the way, give the porter $15 and come out even on his trip to or from Washington, which is the seat of government, consisting mostly of congressmen. The people are glad that they have to pay congressmen for staying in Washington instead of having to pay them to travel. The reason is that a congressman who would travel 600 miles a day, which is the average day's rail trip, including stop-overs in wet territory, could at the end of the year draw on Secretary McAdoo's establishment for $52,560 for his year's traveling expenses. At that rate, most all congressmen act like they would rather travel than to eat.

The fact is, a congressman, according to the way he makes the people pay for it, travels at the rate of $52,500 a year, and at that rate he could consider himself as good as a picture show in Wilmington. The question is not what a congressman is worth but what he thinks he's worth when he gets the chance to get his while it is going. Of course, the people are liable to believe that the reason a congressman wants to hang on to his job forever is that he likes to travel and collect his mileage, but really a congressman gets something on the side in the way of $7,500 a year, most of his clerk's salary, his wholesale stationery allowance, his postoffice frank, and a lot of reputation, approbation, opprobrium and opposition trown in

It seems to take Congress an awfully long time to pass bills in the interest of the people, but congressmen no doubt would like to turn loose and travel some, if President Wilson did not have his hat in the ring with Congress. He has put it over the ropes more times than it has put him on the mat. Just now it is sparring for time in an effort to get out of passing the anti-trust bills, and pretending to get cold feet on a Mr. Jones and a Mr. Warburg who were appointed by President Wilson as members of the Federal Reserve Bank Board. They are trying to sit down on Jones, the Chicago man, because he has one share and a directorship in the International Harvester Company and consequently has to associate with Col. George W. Perkins. So far as Mr. Warburg is concerned, he is a New Yorker and is so well known in financial circles that Congress thinks it believes he never could put one over on Wall Street if it could see him first.

President Wilson would like to get those anti-trust bills passed and he wants the Senate to hurry up and confirm Jones and Warburg, but Congress seems disposed to perspire to the last and die with its boots on—probably like Huerta—who didn't do it at all. Meanwhile, Jones and Warburg are on trial for being suspected of domination by financial interests who exploit the people. Congress exploits them for mileage and other things and it looks like as if it does not care to give anybody else a chance at a cinch. They have an idea that the old saying, "Save Us From Our Friends," must have originated on account of the way Congress acts sometimes.

THE PEOPLE WHO SCARE BUSINESS AWAY.

The greatest obstacle to business in this country during the past two years has been calamity howlers and impressionable folk who sit up and take notice of the howling. If everybody who has a good business would go ahead and push it like Mr. Ford, the automobile manufacturer, there would be nothing the matter with business. While others were howling Mr. Ford was making his business good. He says it is all a mistake to suppose that business is not good. He is judging from his own business, which he is making good, and it is his opinion that if everybody would go on with their business and neither howl nor listen to howlers they could get all the business they could do.

Mr. Ford's business might have been at a standstill if he had let it. If he had gotten scared, discharged his men and shut down his factory, his business would have been at a standstill. However, it took more than a psychological condition to make him do that. He didn't do it. He enlarged his factory, increased his output and has increased his business. If he had stopped to howl or listen to howlers his business would have stopped also.

Business is booming out West because the wheat crop has been good. It will boom in the South just as soon as tobacco and cotton begin to be rushed to market. It will be good all over the country where there has been any production to make it good. If there be no production, there could be no business whether the Republican party or the Democratic party were in power. No party on earth can make business good, but production can.

Production is making Mr. Ford's business good. He is selling automobiles on account of wheat production. He is selling them on account of good crop prospects in the South. Production in the West and the South will help the entire country, and doing business instead of being distracted by psychological conditions is bound to make it good. If the pessimists will be optimists the psychological effect will soon disappear.

Right in the midst of calamity howling the whole country has made progress. There is not a man who can dispute it, and yet people have let calamity howlers make them put on brakes and make it dull for themselves and for others. Nothing but confidence will help that class. They are from Missouri till business gets on a boom in spite of them.

The people who scare business away and who quit business constitute what is the matter with business.

OUR FACTION BREEDING METHOD

It is not difficult to observe that the medieval method of making nominations by the Democracy of North Carolina is a faction breeder which gets in its work sooner or later. Mates, it's an old story. Many instances can be recalled in addition to those two notable ones in the Third and Tenth Congressional districts. What is needed is a system with the most limited possibilities for creating friction, dissatisfaction and factions.

Factions rend and wreck political parties, and they never do a party any good, nor do they help the leaders of the factions of a divided party. In order to eliminate factions the leaders sooner or later have to give away, and about the worst thing that could happen to any aspiring man would be to get mixed up in a factional fight. It will stick to him as long as he lives, if the fight is bitter and long.

About the best thing that politicians can do for themselves and their party is to keep themselves and it free of factional fights. Many an able man has lived in retirement because his political chances were blasted by a factional fight. We don't have to go a thousand miles from Wilmington to point to a notable instance.

Cut out the factions at the beginning. In order to do that, concessions have to be made, but the man who is willing to sacrifice his own interest for his party and its cause will be all the stronger for it when the breech is healed. Watchful waiting will get him something.

HUERTA'S DOWNFALL A CALAMITY.

The downfall of the dictatorship of Huerta is a calamity. It is a calamity to certain political hopes in the United States. Its success would have meant everything to the opponents of President Wilson and the Democratic party. If President Wilson's policy of eliminating Huerta had proved a failure, there would have been no stronger weapon with which to attack him and his party.

The European press gives Wilson credit for a great victory without making war on Mexico. The final success of his policy will make him the biggest man in this country as a statesman of administrative and diplomatic ability. There must be great disappointment among the anti-Democratic crowd that success so far seems to have followed Wilson's plan of dealing with the once grave Mexican situation.

Every man has a right to his own opinion if he can stand for it. No man is wrong because he differs with you, but it may often be the case that when you differ with a man you are wrong yourself, without knowing enough to be aware of it. It is quite possible for a man to have a joint debate with himself and want to kick himself for being wrong. That is judgment getting the upper hand of indiscretion. Some men are willing to look on both sides of a question. An egotist won't do it. He thinks there is only one side and that he is always right on it. If he can't prove that he is right, and happens to run out of arguments, he brings on a fight and considers it a draw, even if he gets licked. When men begin to argue and wind up with chewing the rag, it is time for all innocent bystanders to get on their dignity and go.

The Honorable Cone Johnson, of Texas, having visited Asheville and convinced Editor Caine that he is no myth, but the real thing, there will be a renewal of faith on the part of the faithful who followed the Columbia State into the South Atlantic Cone Johnson League. We have known all along that Cone was no myth, in spite of the fact that he was intangible. At least he failed to let the Statepaper touch him for a carload of Texas watermelons as part pay for its more or less distinguished allegiance. Just as might have been expected, Cone turns out to be a North Carolinian who strayed down in Texas, but having heard that "North Carolina sits at the head of the table," probably he has come back to get the whole table for himself. If that is true we are with him.

CURRENT COMMENT.

If Huerta got out of Mexico with six millions of dollars it means that he is a robber as well as being several other kinds of a rascal.—Durham Herald.

Walter Haynes, the Buncombe Democratic chairman, has plenty of political acumen, and sense like a horse, as the saying is. County chairmen who are not hopelessly involved with the reactionary group will do well to pay careful heed to the suggestion he is offering them.—Greensboro News, (Ind.)

A lady in Kinston, noting the controversy over whether it is New Bern or Newbern, writes The Record that the correct name is New Berne; that it got its name from "Old-Berne," of Switzerland. She still has in her possession a letter written years ago before envelopes or the usual stamps were known, conveying this information. The postage rate at that time was 10 cents. Now will the Charlotte Observer and the Raleigh Observer take note and quit?—Greensboro Record.

Chairman Walser, of the Progressives, says he has canvassed the leading members of his party and ascertained that they do not want to coalesce with the Republican party. The most diverting, though not the most important, contest at the coming election will be that between the Republicans and the Progressives. Will the former be left still further behind or will they do better than they did two years ago? Of course, nobody blames the old-liners for holding on to what they've got or the new party for hesitating to surrender the advantage they won in the encounter of the ballots in 1912. The struggle between the two wings of the minority party will be, as we have said, diverting and entertaining. Of course, the main question in November will be the getting out of the full Democratic vote and all the recruits possible.—Raleigh News and Observer.

On a recent visit to Charlotte three impressive things were observed: first, the passage through the streets of the splendid electric train, made up of three or four cars of the same size as those on steam roads, and beautiful in their appointments. It is promised that in a few years these trains will be running to Raleigh, which it seems is to be for a time at least the eastern terminus of what will be one of the longest electric interurban roads in the United States, if not the longest. Second, was the fact that at least 75 per cent of the buildings in Charlotte have been erected with building and loan association money, and are now owned by the people who took advantage of this system, who paid for the property in six years and four months, and who now save rent money. Third, was the information that something over 500 traveling salesmen live in Charlotte and go out as business missionaries into all parts of the country.—Raleigh Times.

It was with great joy that Raleigh welcomed the Norfolk Southern to this city, and as that railroad has steadily developed and broadened its scope this city has rejoiced for it, and that it was proving a source of benefit to this city. Its growth and prosperity meant aid to Raleigh in its growth and prosperity. The latest as to the plans of that road with reference to Raleigh, given out yesterday, brings more rejoicing to this city. It is that the Norfolk Southern will remove its general repair shops here, making this more than ever the central point of that system. This is a good thing for the Norfolk Southern and a good thing for Raleigh. It will even more strongly enlist the people of this city in their support of that road. The central point of the divisions of the Norfolk Southern, this city becomes not alone the geographical center, but the center in fact in the headquarters for the repair shops. The machinery now in Biscoe is to be removed to Raleigh and the repair shops here are to be made modern in every particular. This will bring to Raleigh 20 to 25 skilled mechanics and will add in population, in wealth, and in resources to this city.—Raleigh News and Observer.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SNEEDEN.

Services from Residence at Greenville Sound Yesterday Morning.

The funeral of Mrs. Ada Sneeden, wife of Mr. T. V. Sneeden, who was found dead in her bed by her husband Sunday morning, was conducted from the residence at Greenville Sound yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. O. N. Marshall. The services were attended by many friends and relatives. The interment was in the Giles burying ground at Wrightsville.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. B. Hewlett, Charles Summerlin, I. J. Jones, W. F. Rogers, A. F. Capps and C. C. Ketchum.

Death of Infant Son.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Redd will sympathize tenderly with them in the loss of their infant son, Charles Clayton, r., which occurred at their Clayton, Jr., which occurred at their day morning at 4 o'clock. The child had been seriously sick for several weeks and its death, although a severe shock to its parents, was not unexpected. The funeral was conducted from the residence yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Dr. Wright Hall. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

Doctor's Boyish Face Reveals Skin Renewer

I heard the other day the story of the physician with so admirable a skin that all his women patients asked his secret. He told one, who generously told others, that, knowing the remarkable absorbent property of ordinary mercolized wax, he concluded this substance would make an excellent complexion renewer and preserver. Knowing the wax could do no injury, he began using it after shaving. He soon observed that the old, withered, colorless cuticle was being gradually absorbed and replaced by younger, healthier skin. This was the simple secret of the silver-haired doctor with the boyish face. The secret became public property. Now women everywhere use mercolized wax, applying it nights like cold cream, washing it off mornings—continuing until the complexion is entirely renovated. An ounce of this wax, procurable at any druggist's, will banish the worst complexion.

Another valuable rejuvenator used by this doctor was a wrinkle-remover and preventive in the form of a face bath, made by dissolving an ounce of saxolite in a half pint witch hazel. This also has become famous.—Fashion Review.

Most Skin Trouble Readily Overcome

The Active Principle of a Famous Remedy Works Wonders.

Many people have marveled the way S. S. S. overcomes skin troubles. The explanation is the fact that S. S. S. works in the blood and the blood is really a most intricate and extraordinary mass of arteries and veins.

When you come to realize that the skin and the flesh beneath are composed of a network of tiny blood vessels you solve the mystery.

There are wonderful medicinal properties in S. S. S. that follow the course of the blood streams just as naturally as the most nourishing food elements.

It is really a remarkable remedy. It consists one ingredient, the active purpose of which is to stimulate the tissues to the healthy selection of its own essential nutriment. And the medicinal elements of this matchless blood purifier are just as essential to well-balanced health as the nutritious elements of the meats, grains, fats and sugars of our daily food.

Not one drop of minerals or drugs is used in its preparation. Ask for S. S. S. and just insist upon having it. And if you desire skillful advice and counsel upon any matter concerning the blood and skin, write to the Medical Department, The Swift Specific Co., 529 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Do not allow some zealous clerk's eloquence over something "just as good" as S. S. S. to fool you with the same old mineral drugs. Beware of all substitutes. Insist upon S. S. S.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the womar's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

FACE A SIGHT WITH ERUPTION RESINOL CURED

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 5, 1913: "I had a small pimple on the side of my face, and it kept getting larger and larger. It had spread over one cheek, and as it would spread water would come from it and every place the water would touch, another sore would form. It itched and burned and my face was a sight. I used several salves and ointments that were recommended, but none helped, until I tried Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, which relieved me at once, and after using it about two weeks, my face was entirely clear. I cannot praise Resinol enough." (Signed) Mrs. Rose Muller, 1313 Snyder Ave.

Physicians have prescribed Resinol for nineteen years and every druggist sells Resinol Soap (25c.), and Resinol Ointment (50c. and $1). Don't be deceived by the useless "substitutes." For free trial, write to Dept. KK, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Beauty Editor Advises on Superfluous Hair

A well known beauty editor writes: "Avoid painful electric operations and evil-smelling, skin-burning depilatories for removing superfluous hair. Mrs. Osgood's Wonder will speedily clear the face, neck, arms or any other part of the body of all unwelcome hair. This harmless prescription is being universally used and endorsed by leading society and professional women everywhere.

Every woman should know that Mrs. Osgood's Wonder is the finest and surest remedy for hair blemishes." You can try it without risk by depositing its small purchase price with J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., or at any leading druggist or toilet counter. If it fails, return the empty package and get your money back, as agreed in signed guarantee which comes in every package.

NO INCREASE FOR PRESENT

Rate on Fertilizer Material from Charleston Will Remain the Same Until November.

According to an Associated Press dispatch from Washington last night, there will be no increase on freight rates on fertilizer material from Charleston, S. C., to Acme, Navassa and Wilmington for the present, the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday having issued an order that the rate shall remain as at the present until November 17, when a decision will be handed down by that body. The rate for years from the South Carolina port to Wilmington has been $1.60 a ton by rail.

Recently the Atlantic Coast Line served notice that effective July 20 the rate would be increased 40 cents a ton. The Acme Manufacturing Company, which operates a large factory at Acme, filed exceptions to the order with the Interstate Commerce Commission and yesterday that body ordered that the proposed increase in suspended until November.

In the meantime the matter will be investigated and at that time an order will be made either granting the increase or forbidding it. The parties interested will each present their sides to the matter.

No reason was assigned by the railroad, it is stated, as to why the proposed increase was to be made. It affected only fertilizer materials. It is not customary to ship materials by railroad from Charleston and it is only in emergency cases that this is done. However, the Acme company saw no reason why there should be an increase and objected to its being done.

The present rate of $1.60 a ton has been in effect for 20 years, it is stated, and if any change is to be made the fertilizer company feels that it should be decreased rather than increased. The present tendency, they state, is towards a decrease in rates rather than an increase.

COMMITTEE HAS CHARGE.

Arrangements Being Made for Using Large Farm for Charity.

A committee from the Wilmington Ministerial Association, composed of Rev. Thos. P. Noe, chairman; Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, Rev. J. D. Bundy and Rev. F. B. Clausen appointed to make arrangements with Mr. William Crownstream relative to his donation of a large farm of 400 acres in Pender county as a memorial to his deceased wife will visit the farm shortly. After looking over the farm they will suggest some way by which the farm can be used for some charitable object.

Mr. Crownstream who is one of the most highly respected citizens of this city, recently expressed the wish that his farm in Pender county should be devoted to some charitable object as a memorial to his wife, who recently died. Upon his suggestion the committee was appointed and they have within the last few days held several conferences with Mr. Crownstream. After visiting the farm they will be better able to advise him.

CHURCH IS DEDICATED.

New House of Worship at Byrdsville Completed and Paid for.

Rev. E. J. Early, of the Dell school, dedicated the new Baptist church at Byrdsville Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The congregation of 80 members recently completed the new structure at a cost of more than $1,000. All of the church indebtedness has been paid and the church has bright prospects for larger growth and development.

The church was established many years ago and is one of the oldest in Columbus county. It is known far and near as Cheerful Hope Baptist church.

Rev. R. S. Lennon is the popular pastor. At the close of the dedicatory services for the church Sunday morning he asked the members of the large congregation present to re-dedicate themselves to the Lord's service. Practically the entire congregation rose to their feet and pledged themselves to live a consecrated Christian life.

BOTH ARMS BROKEN.

Son of Capt. J. M. Kermon Falls From Tree at Home of Grandmother.

While visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. J. Kermon, No. 621 South Second street, William Kermon, the 10-year-old son of Capt. and Mrs. J. M. Kermon, who live at No. 108 Queen street, fell from the limb of a tree in the yard and shattered the bones of his right arm and also fractured the bones of his left arm Sunday afternoon. The little fellow was taken to Harper's Sanitarium for treatment and was reported last night as getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Kermon had warned the child to come down from the tree a few minutes before the accident occurred. He was preparing to obey her when his foot slipped. He dropped 20 feet to the ground head foremost. His arms broke the force of the fall. A portion of the bone in the right arm tore through the flesh, making a painful injury. The left arm was not badly fractured.

DEATH OF MOTHER TERESA.

Beloved Woman of Catholic Church Died at Asheville Yesterday.

Many Catholic friends in Wilmington were greatly grieved yesterday to learn of the death of Mother Teresa, the Superior of the Sisterhood of North Carolina, which occurred at an early hour yesterday morning in Asheville. For several years she was a teacher in the old St. Thomas school of this city. After Mother Augustina was retired she was unanimously chosen as her successor and has continued in that office ever since.

The funeral will be held at Belmont Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Dennen and Father Vincent, of Greensboro, who is visiting Father Dennen, will attend the funeral services.

GOES TO ATLANTA.

Mr. J. A. Struthers With Union Seed & Fertilizer Co.

Mr. J. Arthur Struthers, son of Mr. William Struthers, Sr., of this city and a graduate of the University of North Carolina, class of 1914, has accepted a position as chemist at the Atlanta, Ga., plant of the Union Seed & Fertilizer Company, reporting for duty there yesterday morning.

Mr. Struthers is a most popular young man and his many friends here and elsewhere throughout the State will wish for him every success in his new work.

DANGER OF RABIES EPIDEMIC

Dr. Nesbitt Calls Attention of Council to Need for Action to Prevent Hydrophobia.

That the city is in great danger of an epidemic of hydrophobia is the statement of Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, county health officer, who yesterday addressed an official communication to Mayor Moore and the members of City Council, calling attention to the gravity of the situation and asking that some preventive action be taken.

Dr. Nesbitt declares that cases of hydrophobia have not been infrequent among the dogs of the city for the past several years, and that other animals have also suffered from it, including a cow which died from the disease after having been bitten by a mad dog. But recently, the cases have been much more frequent, and within the last few days two dogs known to have been suffering from the disease have been killed. One of these bit two children last Friday, and both of them are known to have bitten a number of other dogs.

Mayor P. Q. Moore stated yesterday, after the receipt of Dr. Nesbitt's communication calling his attention to the situation, that he would either call a special meeting of Council today to consider the matter, or would bring it up at the regular weekly meeting tomorrow morning.

Dr. Nesbitt's letter to the Mayor and Council is as follows:

"Mayor and Council, City of Wilmington.

"Gentlemen:—I desire to call your attention to the immediate and urgent need for definite action with reference to hydrophobia infection among the dogs of Wilmington. The occurrence of hydrophobia has become very frequent within the last few weeks. Two children were bitten at Fourth and Castle streets last Friday by a dog which had bitten a number of other dogs and which, upon examination at the State Laboratory, was shown to be suffering from hydrophobia. This dog is known to have been infected by another dog which escaped and which bit a number of other dogs.

"It is absolutely necessary that the dogs of Wilmington be either muzzled or confined for a period of at least six months in order that the city may be freed from the present great danger of an epidemic of hydrophobia.

"Very respectfully,
"CHAS. T. NESBITT,
"County Health Officer."

BEFORE THE RECORDER.

Residents of Hanby's Row Have Departed and All Is Quiet There.

Some days ago the Recorder announced his intention of having various residents on Hanby's Row arrested because of reports of disorderly conduct in that district. Yesterday morning was the time set for the return of the warrants but no persons were reported as arrested. The reason was simple; all the people in that section have moved to other parts. The boisterous conduct and loud voices are likewise gone and the officers say that there is not a quieter place in the city.

Ben Richardson, colored, was given an additional 15 days on the county roads for making his escape. Richardson was sent to the roads on the first day of last December. He did not like the surroundings, however, and only remained four days. He was not heard from again until Saturday when he was arrested in Florence, S. C. It was through him that the Florence officers were given a clue as to the identity of Ernest Jenkins, colored, wanted here for the murder of Bruce Pierce, also colored. Richardson was arrested and brought back to the city yesterday by Mr. Grady Cook. In view of his aid in the other case the Recorder did not feel disposed to give him a heavy sentence. He is under sentence to serve 12 months on the county roads on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

John Forbes, colored, was fined $5 and the costs for disorderly conduct. He was unable to pay this and was sent to the roads for 30 days in default. Willie McRay, colored, wasn't guilty of an assault. Minnie and Edna Blowther, both colored, were found not guilty of disorderly conduct. Messrs. W. D. Stokely and H. C. Levering each paid one-half the costs for engaging in an affray last week.

INSTALL PASTOR SUNDAY.

Rev. W. M. Shaw Returned Yesterday from Trip to Pender County.

Rev. W. M. Shaw, Sabbath school missionary for the Wilmington Presbytery, returned yesterday from Pender county where on Sunday he took part in the installation of Rev. P. L. Clark as pastor of Hopewell Presbyterian church near Burgaw on Sunday morning. He was assisted in the service by Elder J. H. Moore, of Burgaw. Two deacons of the church were also ordained at the same service.

Hopewell church is one of the oldest Presbyterian churches in Pender county. For the last several months Mr. Shaw has been preaching there at intervals. He has had much to do with building up the membership of the church and it was eminently fitting that he should serve on the committee to install a regular pastor. His preaching throughout the Wilmington Presbytery has been the means of accomplishing great good.

FUNERAL OF MRS. McCLUSKEY.

Services Held From Residence in City Yesterday Afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. C. S. McCluskey, whose death occurred at the James Walker Memorial Hospital on Sunday morning as a result of injuries sustained in a runaway last week, was conducted from the residence, No. 717 South Eighth street, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. J. P. King, pastor of Sixth Street Advent Christian church, of which the deceased was a faithful and devoted member. The services were attended by many friends. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Francis Fales, Clarence Smith, Charles Capps and John Stokeley.

—An accident was narrowly avoided yesterday morning at Fifth and Princess streets, when a team was nearly run over by a suburban car of the Tidewater Power Co. The mules backed upon a wheelbarrow which was being pushed by a colored boy, and he was slightly hurt. No other harm to amount to anything was done.

BETRAYED BY HIS FRIEND

Ernest Jenkins Owes His Capture to the Ingratitude of Bennie Richardson.

After successfully eluding all efforts to capture him for more than a year, Ernest Jenkins, colored, is now in jail here awaiting trial at the September term of Superior court on a charge of murder, and it is to the ingratitude of Bennie Richardson, a colored friend, that he owes his present plight. Richardson betrayed ihs identity to officers at Florence, S. C., after Jenkins had paid Richardson's fine and costs and kept him from going to the roads of Florence county, S. C., for some minor offense.

Jenkins and Richardson, the latter wanted here as an escaped convict, were brought to the city yesterday by Mr. Grady Cook, foreman at the East Wilmington convict camp, from Florence, where Mr. Cook went to identify the prisoners. Jenkins was lodged in jail on a capias from the clerk of Superior court, to await trial at the September term on a charge of murdering Bruce Pierce, colored, at Hilton, more than a year ago, shortly following Richardson's escape from the county roads, where he was serving a term for an assault with a deadly weapon. Richardson was tried in the Recorder's court yesterday morning and was sent back to the county roads with an additional 15-day sentence to be served upon the expiration of the term he was serving when he escaped. He was sent to the roads December 1, 1913, for an assault with a deadly weapon and escaped four days later.

Several weeks ago, at Florence, S. C., Jenkins, Richardson and several other negroes were arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct. Richardson knowing that a reward was offered for Jenkins, told Sheriff Burch that he was wanted in this county. When the negroes were tried Jenkins was sentenced to a term of 15 days on the county roads. The others were let off with light fines and costs. Richardson was unable to pay his fine and Jenkins, not knowing that his friend had betrayed his identity, paid the fine and costs for him.

Sheriff Burch then got in communication with Sheriff Cowan here and the latter arranged to send a guard to Florence to identify the negro. When Mr. Cook went to Florence he also recognized Richardson as an escaped convict and brought him back also.

General Barfield, colored, said to have been an eye witness to the shooting at Hilton, is now in the county jail charged with selling whiskey, and will be used by the State in making out its case against Jenkins.

Sheriff Burch, of Florence county, S. C., will get a reward of $75 for the capture of Jenkins and an additional $15 for the arrest of Richardson.

BRIGADE IN CAMP WILSON

Fourth Day of Splendid Outing at Carolina Beach—Routine and Other Interesting Items.

(By Long Distance Telephone.)

Camp Wilson, Carolina Beach, N. C., July 20.—All three companies of the Boys' Brigade, A, B and C, are in the midst just now of the most successful encampment in the history of the organization. The attendance is the largest yet and from every viewpoint there has been nothing to mar the perfect success of the annual outing.

The camp has been designated Camp Wilson, in honor of our distinguished President, and it is fitting in that respect alone that the encampment should be one of the best yet. The advance guard of the companies came down Thursday in charge of Commissary Sergeant J. A. Price and everything was in readiness for the citizen soldiery when they arrived the following day. There are 70 men in camp now and more are expected before the week is over. The men are enjoying the seashore life to the fullest. Among the sports enjoyed are surf bathing, boating, fishing, etc., while a large Victrola adds to the pleasure of the boys indoors. The camp is situated about half a mile south of the main pavilion where everything is kept in the best of order. Col. Taylor, founder of the Brigade and its most beloved member, is personally in command, while the manager, Mr. Charles Dushan, is also here and contributing no little to the welfare of the boys. Mr. B. F. King, Jr., a veteran of the corps, is secretary and is here to "count noses" at roll call and attend to the other duties of his position. The camp routine is as follows:

6:30 A. M.—Reville.
6:45 to 7:30—Surf bathing.
8 A. M.—Breakfast.
9:30 A. M.—Devotional exercises.
10 to 10:30 A. M.—Camp cleaning.
1 P. M.—Dinner.
4 to 6 P. M.—Surf bathing.
7 P. M.—Supper.
10 P. M.—Taps.

A guard is daily detailed for camp duty and Mr. J. C. McAllister is officer of the day for today, while the detail for the day is L. Blackman, George Fowler, Louis Davis, H. K. King, Leon Davis, the latter being corporal of the guard. Waiters for the day are C. Williams, E. Warren, D. Dill, B. A. Corbett.

Sunday Col. Taylor conducted the devotional exercises while Mr. Dushan conducted the services on Saturday.

Sunday there were many visitors to the camp and their presence gave much pleasure to the boys. The visitors were entertained at dinner and 150 in all were taken care of in camp. The companies have a corps of three excellent cooks who know their business and the culinary department is well looked after.

The boys in camp are especially thankful to Mr. H. A. Kure for bath rooms with shower which contribute much to the enjoyment of the boys in camp.

Thursday the boys are to have as guests the Epworth League of Fifth Street M. E. church. On this occasion the boys are arranging for a series of athletic events and other exercises for which prizes will be offered.

Several of the married men in camp have their wives here for the encampment while others have other members of their families. They are occupying the colony tent owned by the New Hanover Transit Company.

The following is the roster of the three companies now in camp:

Company A and B—Col. Walker Taylor, commander; Charles Dushan, manager; James A. Price, commissary sergeant; B. F. King, Jr., adjutant; A. J. Beach, B. F. Brittain, Jr., L. Blackman, George Bornemann, Earl Bowen, Simon Branch, Charlie Burnett, Charlie Davis, Clarence Davis, Kenneth Davis, R. L. Davis, W. R. Dosher, Leon DuRant, U. C. Ellis, John Fergus, Harry Fales, George Fowler, John Fowler, Mercer Gallagher, Walter Hines, Kelly Jewell, Hiram K. King, J. U. King, H. E. King, G. LeGwin, Frank Litgen, R. Lord, John McAllister, John A. McCartney, W. Montgomery, H. B. Register, Ed Register, Marvin Register, Bob Snakenberg, Kelly Smith, P. L. Scott, Ralph Sholar, Albert Smith, Thomas Walker, Willie Wilkinson, Louis Davis.

Ladies Hurt in Runaway.

Mrs. Sidbury and Mrs. Scott, of Northwest, were badly frightened though not badly hurt yesterday afternoon when the horse to the buggy which they were driving became frightened because of a quick turn on Market street near the river and overturned the vehicle. The buggy with the ladies under it was dragged for some distance before it was stopped.

STATE SHOOT BEGINS TODAY

Amateur Championship Race Will Feature Meet—Practice Shoot Yesterday Afternoon.

Under the auspices of the New Hanover Gun Club, the North Carolina State shoot will be held at Wrightsville Beach today and tomorrow, and the event promises to be the most successful and best attended of its kind ever held in New Hanover county. The feature of the meet will be the race for the amateur State championship, which will be shot off today. Mr. J. F. Pennington, of Tarboro, is the present State champion, having won it last year when he defeated Mr. L. B. Pearce, of this city.

Fifty or more amateur and professional shotgun experts have already arrived and more will come in on the early trains today. A practice shoot was held yesterday afternoon, when over 30 contestants put in several hours smashing the clay pigeons and getting in form for the real work.

Shooting will begin promptly at 9 o'clock this morning, and the amateur State championship race will be the first event. Upon completion of this event, which will be a 100-bird race, eight regular events of 20 targets each will be shot.

The winner of the State championship will be awarded a cash prize of $50, conditional upon his attending the Grand American Handicap tournament and entering the National Amateur Championship event at that meet, in case he fails to attend this tournament and make entry and compete in the event specified, the prize will go to the runner-up, upon the same conditions as outlined above.

In addition, a number of handsome trophies will go to those winning high places in the championship event.

The results in the practice shoot yesterday in the 100-bird event, were as follows:

*Daniels	93
*Storr	92
*Houseman	92
*Goodrich	91
Pennington	91
Dreher	88
*Huff	87
Pearce	86
*Avery	85

Out of 75 targets Holloway broke 50, and in the 50-target class Grant broke 46, Smith 20, Stevens 18 and Blackburn 18.

MR. HOOD IN CITY.

Congressional Candidate of Third District Here for Short While.

Hon. George E. Hood, of Goldsboro, who by the withdrawal of Hon. Chas. E. Thomas, of Newbern, as candidate for Congress virtually becomes the nominee of the Democratic party from that district, was in the city a short while yesterday afternoon en route to his home from Jacksonville, where he had been on business. He did not talk politics and was only in the city for a short time.

He stated that a meeting of the Democratic executive committee of the Third Congressional district would be held in Goldsboro at noon Wednesday and that in all probability it would at that time declare the official nominee for the coming election. Since Mr. Thomas has withdrawn from the contest this leaves the field open to Mr. Hood and there is every reason for supposing that the committee at this meeting will declare Mr. Hood the nominee.

NEGRO BADLY WOUNDED.

Engaged in Pistol Duel With Another Negro at Parson's Mill.

Luther Williams was brought to the James Walker Memorial Hospital yesterday afternoon to be treated for several severe wounds which he received in a pistol duel with Henry Smith, another negro, at Parson's Mill, six miles west of Burgaw, yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock. He was shot in the left leg and also in both hips. One of the bullets perforated his intestines four times and serious doubts are entertained as to his recovery.

Henry Smith, the other negro, was wounded several times but not so badly as Williams. He was lodged in the county jail at Burgaw. No particulars are known as to the cause of the dispute. Williams lives near Burgaw and Smith is from South Carolina. Both were employed at a saw mill. Williams was brought to the hospital by an officer and is being held a prisoner.

WHITE LAKE THE SCENE OF MUCH MERRY-MAKING.

White Lake, N. C., July 20.—The very popular Melvin side of White Lake, Bladen county, was the scene of much pleasure and merry-making by a party of young people from Ivanhoe and vicinity Thursday and Friday. The following composed the party:

Misses Lula and Mary Elizabeth Boney and Mr. Peter Boney, of Wallace; Misses Edna and Beatrice McMillan and Mr. Tim McMillan, of Teachey, guests of Mrs. Quince Bannerman; Misses Ethel and Mabel Henry, Janie Beatty and Mary Corbett and Messrs. John D., Robert, Laurin and Hays Beatty, Robert and Levi Bannerman and R. L. Fox, of Ivanhoe, all under the chaperonage of Mrs. Quince Bannerman.

The time was very pleasantly spent in bathing, rowing and riding.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT AT ROSE HILL.

Rose Hill, N. C., July 20.—Beautiful in every detail was the miscellaneous shower party given in honor of Miss Melva Carr, bride-elect, by Miss Ethel Southerland from 5 to 7 o'clock Thursday evening. The guests were received in the hall by Miss Sudie Southerland; then invited by the hostess into the parlor, which presented an effect beautiful and artistic in its decorations of white and yellow, the color scheme of the occasion.

When the company had assembled, a card and pencil was provided each guest and a recipe contest was entered into. Each guest was asked to give her favorite dish for breakfast, luncheon and dinner. The contest over, the cards were collected and put together in artistic manner by Mrs. Burke Herring as a cook book for the bride-elect. It made a dainty gift in its hand-painted cover, tied with yellow ribbons.

Another enjoyable contest was that of friendship messages. The prize was awarded to Mrs. H. J. Boney.

Miss Carr received many beautiful and dainty gifts from the guests.

Wrightsville Beach

Among those registered at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were Miss Sara White, Goldsboro; Donald Clement, Salisbury; T. F. Jones, York, Pa.; E. V. Finlayson, Charlotte; E. P. McDaniel and J. S. Denoway, Atlanta.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Miss Margaret Scott will leave this morning for Wrightsville. For the past two weeks she has been the recipient of many charming social courtesies as the guest of Miss Mildred Finlayson."

Included in the arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel yesterday were Robert Shelor, Sumter, S. C.; W. L. Jones, Goldsboro; Hugh E. White and W. L. Hefner, Hickory; H. O. Graddy, L. J. Frazier and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilkes, Atlanta; John C. Gilmer, Charlotte; W. L. Robbins, Phoenix.

Headed by that wonderful Selig drama, "His Sister," which has scored such a hit wherever shown, tonight's programme at Lumina is slated to please the most fastidious lover of moving pictures and is a bill not to be missed. The second offering on the screen will be another well executed Selig drama, "The Living Wage."

"A Snakeville Courtship," a howling Western comedy by Essanay, will bring up the rear of this gigantic show. There is a laugh in every inch of this big reel of picture and if you love fun be certain to see this one when it is thrown on the screen over the ocean.

An event similar to "Atlanta Night," which proved to be such a decided success at Lumina last Friday night, has been arranged for next Friday night. There are a great many Charlotte visitors at the beach now and this event should be as successful as that of last week. The visitors from the Queen City will be given exclusive use of the floor from 9:15 to 9:45 o'clock. Handsome prizes will be given the Charlotteans, who are adjudged the best dancers.

The first display of fireworks of the season at Lumina will take place on Thursday evening. The exhibition of pyrotechnics will take place in the rear of Lumina next to the sound and the verandas at Lumina will furnish an ideal place from which to view the aerial display of fireworks. The exhibition will be given under the supervision of Mr. E. C. Hudson, who has had charge of the pyrotechnic displays at Lumina for the past several seasons.

PRELIMINARY EVENT IN INTERSTATE ONE-STEP CONTEST

Thirteen couples, representing seven States, were selected in the preliminary event of the Interstate one-step contest at Lumina last evening to enter the finals, and from these couples the winning couple will be selected this evening. The novelty of the idea appealed to the visitors on the beach and the Wilmington people as well, and the preliminary event last evening was witnessed by one of the largest crowds of the entire season. The couples representing the different States were distinguished by different colored ribbons, and the delegations from the States cheered their favorites heartily. The contest was given under the supervision of Don Richardson.

The couples to compete in the finals this evening are as follows: North Carolina; Miss Lucy Smith, W. F. Morrison; Miss Taylor, William Lord; Miss Green, Dr. Whitfield.

Georgia: Miss Jones, B. Smith; Miss Wyley, Mr. Small, Mary E. Evans, F. Wyly.

Kentucky: Miss Laura Parsley, Wm. Fenley.

Virginia: Mrs. T. C. Diggs, Clarence C. Smith.

Tennessee: Miss May, T. F. Hill.

South Carolina—Miss Johnson, Mr. Rollins.

Florida: Miss Scott, Mr. O'Day.

New York: Miss Parsley, Mr. Gouverneur.

Mississippi: Miss Scott, Mr. O'Day.

The judges are as follows: Mrs. Reynolds, Tennessee; Mr. Flannagan, Greenville, S. C.; Mrs. McConnell, Alabama; Mr. West, New York.

GOLDSBORO FIREMEN ENJOY OUTING AT THE BEACH.

The members of the Goldsboro Fire Department are enjoying an outing of one week at Wrightsville Beach, having arrived yesterday. They are stopping at the Oceanic Hotel and are enjoying the surf bathing, fishing, boating and other pleasure of the resort to the fullest extent.

This morning the fire laddies will try their luck with the finny tribe, and as there are several members among the delegation who consider themselves experts in the gentle art, the fish will probably fare rather badly. An invitation has been extended to Chief Chas. Schnibben, of the Wilmington fire department, to be the guest of the Goldsboro boys on their trip today, and he has promised to take care of all the bites he gets.

Fireworks Thursday Night
at Lumina (weather permitting). Starts 9:15 P. M. Exhibition includes shells and batteries of many kinds and colors. See advertisement tomorrow's paper for full description.

M'REYNOLDS PROBABLY WILL SUCCEED LURTON

Chief Justice Clark Not Believed to Have a Chance.

Overman Assures N. C. Business Men and Manufacturers They Have Nothing to Fear From Anti-Trust Bills.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., July 20.—Although Representative Pou has called a meeting of the State delegation to endorse Judge Walter Clark for the United States Supreme court bench, there does not seem to be an overly amount of enthusiasm in favor of the North Carolina jurist. Neither does there seem to be any disposition on the part of the President to seriously consider Judge Clark's appointment.

Many people here would like to see a North Carolinian appointed to the high position but they do not believe Judge Clark has a chance. Facts are facts and in this case they overweigh sentiment.

Those in a position to know what the President has in mind in this particular instance say that he will appoint Attorney General McReynolds to the place made vacant by the death of Justice Lurton.

Charles L. Abernathy is here in the interest of the candidacy of J. R. Morris, of Atlantic, who wants to be lighthouse keeper of Core Sound, to succeed Capt. A. B. Hooper, deceased. Senators Simmons and Overman are trying to land the place for Mr. Morris.

No Secondary Boycotts Permitted.

Business men and manufacturers in the State who employ labor will be interested to know that, although farmers' unions and labor unions have been legalized in the anti-trust bill, the provision which seemingly permitted secondary boycotts and picketing of private residences by strikers has been stricken out.

The bill prohibits interlocking directorates. It provides "that from and after two years from the date of the approval of this act no person at the same time shall be director in any two or more corporations, any one of which has capital, surplus and undivided profits aggregating more than $1,000,000, engaged in whole or in part in commerce, other than common carriers subject to the Act to Regulate Commerce, if such corporations are or shall have heretofore, by virtue of their business and location of operation, competitors,, so that the elimination of competition by agreement between them would constitute a violation of any of the provisions of any of the anti-trust laws."

No Need to Fear.

Senator Overman has received many letters protesting against a law that would prohibit interlocking directorates that would cripple towns like Charlotte, Gastonia, Concord, Salisbury and the like. Senator Overman does not think this will interfere in any way with any legitimate business in North Carolina.

"I want to assure the men who engage in manufacturing, banking or other legitimate enterprises that the inhibition against interlocking directorates will not disturb them at all," said Mr. Overman. P. R. A.

SUGGESTIONS FROM THE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

Made to Congress in Regard to Railroad Securities Bill, Etc.

Washington, July 20.—Further dissociation of private business from railroads was recommended to Congress today by the Inter-State Commerce Commission as a result of an investigation of transportation of coal and oil in response to a resolution of Congress.

The commission recommended that the commodities clause of the Hepburn rate law be extended to all traffic. This clause now makes it unlawful for any railroad to transport any article produced by it or in which it has any interest, except lumber, coal and such other articles as may be necessary for its own use.

The commission suggested "it is important that the public business of transportation should be clearly separated from private business and the railroads should be prohibited from furnishing directly or indirectly capital or loans to private industries, and that the railroads should be prohibited from extending or using their credit for the benefit of private individuals or companies."

RAILROAD GIVING TESTIMONY.

Pennsylvania Wants to Retain Stock in Shipping Corporation.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 20.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company in giving testimony in rebuttal before Karl K. Gartner, a special examiner, for the Inter-State Commerce Commission here today on its application for permission to retain ownership in the Erie Western Transportation Company, also known as the Anchor Linee, declared that the Erie & Western could be more advantageously operated by the Pennsylvania Railroad than if it were independently owned.

This testimony was given by Walter Thayer, of the Erie & Western. Under the Panama Canal act all railroads are prohibited from owning competing water lines in inter-State commerce unless the Inter-State Commerce Commission should decide that the ownership was not against public interest.

BULLARD-RAYBON.

Young Couple Married at Lumberton Last Night.

(By Long Distance Telephone.)

Lumberton, N. C., July 20.—Mr. LeRoy Bullard and Miss Pearl Raybon were married tonight at 8 o'clock, Rev. W. R. Davis, of the East Lumberton Baptist church, officiating. They left on the evening train for Wrightsville Beach.

A NURSE TAKES DOCTOR'S ADVICE

And is Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Euphemia, Ohio.—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blest with excellent health for a woman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting I cannot over estimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excellent to take before and after childbirth."—Miss EVELYN ADELIA STEWART, Euphemia, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

STRONG UNDERTONE IN COTTON

Critical Situation in Texas is Given for Change in Feeling on the Market.

New York, July 10.—What was claimed by the bulls to be a very critical situation in Texas, was largely responsible for a strong undertone in the cotton market today and with a few exceptions the trend of prices was steadily upward, the close being very steady at 10 to 16 points net advance, or within a couple of points of top for the day.

Over-Sunday Texas weather was dry and no rain was shown on Monday's map nor was any in prospect for tomorrow. This with continued higher temperatures are said in numerous bullish advices from the Southwest which created considerable apprehension in local circles and led to heavy covering besides quite an extensive line of new buying, partly based on anticipations of a bullish weekly weather report tomorrow as the government last week said that Texas was even then in need of rain. At the opening the market was steady with old crops unchanged to four points lower and new crops four to five points higher.

There was a little selling by Liverpool and New Orleans houses early in the day but contracts were generally scarce until after midday, when spot houses became quite liberal sellers on the idea that the heaviest outstanding short interests had been covered, although this pressure was well absorbed without materially affecting the upward trend. Some authorities intimated that without rain soon the Texas crop would be cut under 3,000,000 bales.

Cotton futures closed steady.

HARD TO KEEP QUORUM.

That Given As One Reason for Delay in Jones-Warburg Nominations.

Washington, July 20.—Difficulty in maintaining a quorum in the Senate was ascribed today by administration leaders as one of the reasons for delay in consideration of the nomination of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, as a member of the Federal Reserve Board.

"We can't muster a quorum for a vote," said Senator Lewis, of Illinois, who is leading the fight for Mr. Jones' confirmation. "I hope we can reach a vote before the end of the week," he said.

No action was taken in the matter today. No word has yet reached the committee from Paul M. Warburg, of New York, indicating that he would agree to appear before the committee for examination as to his financial affiliations.

DOMESTIC EXPORTS

Of United States Made Up Largely of Foodstuffs and Oils.

Washington, July 20.—Foodstuffs, cotton, cottonseed oil and mineral oils constituted almost half of the $2,329,731,884 of domestic exports from the United States during the fiscal year of 1914. Their total value was $1,065,688,460, or about $38,000,000, more than during 1913, according to figures made public today by the Department of Commerce.

Next to cotton with its $610,000,000, export value, was breadstuffs with $156,781,985. Cottonseed oil exported was valued at $13,788,313 and cattle, hogs and sheep at $1,040,870.

Cotton increased $64,000,000, and meat and dairy products $6,000,000.

CALHOUN SECURED MILLIONS

Is Charge Against Former President of Western Railroad System.

San Francisco, July 20.—More than one million dollars drawn from the treasury of the United Railways in San Francisco in 1911-12 and1913 was diverted, in the belief of Thornwall Mullaly, assistant to former President Patrick Calhoun, into the State Railroad Commission.

The orders for the withdrawals between 1911 and 1913 were written by Mullaly at the verbal direction, he said, of President Calhoun.

Albany, N. Y., July 20.—Stockholders of the New York Central Railraod, at a meeting today, voted to approve the connection of the New York Central with the Lake Shore & Michigan Central and other allied lines.

STOCKS DULL AND DROOPING

Confused Reports Regarding Eastern Freight Rate Decision is Held Responsible.

New York, July 20.—Confusing reports regarding the Eastern freight rate situation and a budget of unfavorable rumors from abroad contributed toward today's dull and drooping stock market. Dispatches from Washington suggested further delay in the handing down of the rate decision, and discouraged those who had pinned their hopes on a general advance.

In addition to the 15,000 shares sold here for London, direct sales for Amsterdam were again reported. Baltimore & Ohio common and preferred descended to new low levels. Heavy offerings of both issues for future delivery attested the persistency of the foreign liquidation.

Irregularity was shown by minor issues, some recovering and others falling to or near last week's quotations. Texas company was the most prominent of the specialties, dropping five points.

Bonds were but lightly affected by the sagging tendency in stocks. Total sales par value aggregated $1,307,000.

Mr. Delaney characterized the Associated Railways of Virginia and Carolinas as merely a subsidiary of the Tidewater Bituminous Steam Coal Traffic Association, and declared the Pennsylvania, the New York Central were in control of the executive committees of the Baltimore & Ohio, the Chesapeake & Ohio and the Norfolk & Western railroads.

Charles Lanier, George F. Baker, E. J. Berwind, Adrian Isilin, Jr., E. H. Gary, Charles Steele and H. K. McHarg were named by the witness as the men who actually direct the affairs of the Southern Railway and its subsidiary lines.

"The actual stock owned by all of these men in the Southern Railway Company," said Mr. Dulaney, "is hardly enough to buy a good plantation in South Carolina or a forty-acre orange grove in Florida." Their positions as members of interlocking directorates, he added, was what gave them mastery of the Southern.

Alfred P. Thom, general counsel for the Southern Railway, reported that company at the hearing. Sessions will be resumed tomorrow.

CONVINCING TESTIMONY

Given by Many Wilmington People.

Experiences told by Wilmington people—

Those who have had weak kidneys—
Who used Doan's Kidney Pills—
Who found the remedy effective—
Such statements prove merit.
You might doubt an utter stranger.
You must believe Wilmington people.

Here's Wilmington proof. Verify it. Read. Investigate. Be convinced. You'll find why Wilmington folks believe in Doan's.

Miss M. Rivenbark, 105 Dock St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I had a constant, dull pain in the small of my back and some days I could hardly get about the house. The kidney secretions bothered me and I had but little strength or energy. I used several kidney tonics and remedies, but nothing gave me relief until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, which were procured at Bellamy's Drug Store. It didn't take them long to give me lasting benefit. You are welcome to continue using my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Miss Rivenbark had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CURES PIMPLES EASILY.

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past J. Hicks Bunting Drug Company have done a big business in selling Hokara, the skin healer that has won so many friends in Wilmington.

It has been found to heal not only all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but also the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There has yet to be found any form of wound or disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not help, and its action is so quick that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of the unusual curative powers, the price is trifling. To convince everyone of its merits, J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25c. And remember that if you do not think it does what is claimed, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

PREPARING FOR STATE TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY

To be Held in Charlotte Late in November.

State Entomologist Sherman Tells How to Combat the Ravages of the "Army Worm," Now in Seven Counties.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 20.—The executive committee of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly was in session here today formulating the programme for the annual session of the association to be held in Charlotte November 23-28, including Thanksgiving Day. The committee decided upon the subjects to be treated and the principal speakers to be asked to deliver addresses and take leading parts in the general work of the assembly, it requiring, however, several days now to communicate with those selected and ascertain their acceptance before the details of the programme are ready for announcement.

Members of the executive committee here were President M. C. S. Noble, E. H. Moser, Zebulon; Miss Mary O. Graham, Charlotte; Prof. R. H. Metherson, Winston-Salem; Mrs. H. E. Fennell, Wilmington, and Miss Hattie Parrott, Kinston.

It's the "True Army Worm."

What State Entomologist Franklin Sherman describes as the "true army worm" has made its appearance in Wake, Pitt, Johnston, Nash, Wayne, Wilson and Hertford counties, and he is spreading broadcast in the infected districts a special bulletin that gives in detail methods of combatting the advance of this destructive enemy to growing crops of corn and grasses. Mr. Sherman has inspected the conditions in most of these localities and finds that a fly that is deadly to the "army worm" is helping greatly in staying the threatened plague. He recommends that when an "army" is discovered a deep furrow be made around it, listing the land so that the worms must climb the deep sides of the furrow, which they cannot easily do. A clean cut post hole every few yards in the furrow will, he says, trap many. Paris green may be applied to the green crops immediately in advance of the "army," mixing three pounds of the Paris green with one pound of flour or lime, or mix one-half pound of Paris green with 30 gallons water and sprinkle the grass ahead of the "army." Another remedy is mixing half pound of Paris green with 30 pounds of wheat bran, add one gallon of syrup and water to moisten, mix thoroughly and scatter where the worms are.

Endorsement of Clark.

Endorsements of the candidacy of Chief Justice Walter Clark for the appointment to the United States Supreme court to succeed Justice Lurton, deceased, continue to come in from the various counties of the State, it being certain now that the bar associations of practically all the counties will speedily adopt such resolutions. Those reporting endorsements today were Henderson and Haywood counties.

New City Editor.

Mr. Edgar A. Womble, for a number of years active in newspaper work in Raleigh, but for several years one of the telegraphic news editors on the Baltimore Sun, returned to Raleigh today and took up the duties of city editor of The News and Observer, succeeding W. T. Bost, who has gone for a tour of Europe.

Bountiful Apple Crop.

Assistant Horticulturalist S. B. Shaw, just back from a trip through the best fruit sections of the North Carolina mountains, says there is every assurance of a bountiful apple crop. He found the apple trees everywhere he went laden with well-developed apples and the trees and the fruit remarkably free from insects that might damage the fruit.

SITUATION AT VANCOUVER IS GROWING SERIOUS.

Canadian Naval Reserves and Marines Ready to Go to Scene.

Vancouver, B. C., July 20.—On advices that the Canadian cruiser Rainbow and a contingent of bluejackets reinforced by details from the cruiser Niabo were possibly ready to leave Esquimalt naval harbor for Vancouver, the situation regarding the Komagata Maru and her riotous Hindu passengers became grave tonight.

The Hindus, several hundred in number, resisted deportation for three months. Early Sunday morning they repelled immigration inspectors and police officers who tried to board the ship to quell a disturbance. In the fight a score of white men were injured. The Rainbow is expected to arrive after daylight and she will embark a contingent of the Irish Fusilleers and the Duke of Connaught's own regiment. It is then intended to train the Rainbow's guns on the Komagata Maru and if the Hindus do not agree to removal from the harbor, bloodshed is believed inevitable.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND A MONTH.

Amount of Atlantic Coast Line's Pay Roll at Fayetteville.

Fayetteville, N. C., July 20.—It will doubtless astonish the people of Fayetteville to know what the Atlantic Coast Line pays out in salaries and wages to officials and employes residing in Fayetteville, says The Observer this afternoon. It may be that a few already know. However, here are the figures—$15,000 monthly. This payroll covers the force in the freight and passenger departments, claim department branch and Mr. J. C. Pope's shop force. This amount does not include the wages paid to train crews, who make up the seven local freights in here every night, though these men alone spend a large sum here every month during their lay-over.

Falmouth, England, July 20.—Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger for the America's cup, reached this port today under convoy of the steam yacht Erin. She had a rough passage from Plymouth.

STORE ROBBED OF MONEY

Unknown Person Enters D. Kaille's Place of Business on Market Street Last Night.

The store of Mr. D. Kaille, a Syrian merchant, who conducts a dry goods business at No. 25 Market street, was entered shortly after 10 o'clock last night and $73 in money taken from a box which was locked in a trunk under the counter, according to his statement to the police. The store had been locked a short while before by the proprietor, who went to a moving picture show. On his way home he passed by the place and found the front door open with someone in the building.

He is a crippled man, but ran up the street as fast as he could and notified Policeman H. R. Smith, who was standing at the corner of Front and Market. Policeman J. F. Smith was also nearby and the two officers went with the merchant to his place of business. By that time the burglar had made his escape out the back door.

Kaille does not speak English very well and the officers did not understand at first what he meant. Police man H. R. Smith thought that his bedroom which is over the store had been entered. He ran into the store and started up the stairs when he saw that the back door was open. He went out the back way and after searching around in the alley which runs alongside the store found the money box which had been pried open. There was a check book and $3 in charge in the box which had been left behind. Kaille said that there was $70 in bills and $6 in silver in the box.

The money box had been placed in a small trunk under the counter. Whoever did the robbery opened the front door with a key and entered the store. The trunk had been pulled out into the middle of the floor and the lock broken off. Several bank books which were in the trunk were placed on the counter. The cash drawer was also opened and 50 cents taken from it. The burglar was evidently well acquainted with the surroundings.

The officers questioned Kaille closely about the matter but he was unable to furnish them any clue as to who did the robbery. Policeman H. R. Smith stated that the lights had been turned on and that he had not noticed anything unusual about the store until Kaille came up the street. The back door to the store is arranged so that it can be opened from the inside without much trouble, but is fastened by a bar that would make it hard to force it from the outside.

NOT CATHERINE WINTERS.

Body of Girl Exhumed is Identified as Daughter of Another Man.

Nrbana, Ill., July 20.—The theory that the body of a girl exhumed from the Patters' field of Mt. Hope cemetery here was that of the missing Catherine Winters of Newcastle, Ind., was shattered today. The body was identified by Nicholas Larry, as his daughter Marjery, who died 13 months ago at the age of two years.

Panama, July 20.—The premature explosion of a 4,800-pound dynamite charge at Cucaracha slide today killed five workmen, four of them white and severely injured one white man and seventeen negroes.

LADIES, HERE'S A LIVE WIRE! MRS. KNOWLAND'S TRYINK TO BOOST HUSBAND INTO U. S. SENATE

CONGRESSMAN KNOWLAND'S WIFE CAMPAIGNING FOR HIS ELECTION TO U.S. SENATE

San Francisco, July 21.—Since the election of United States Senators has been put into the direct hands of the voters all over the country it is probably sure that other women will follow the example of Mrs. Joseph K. Knowland, wife of Congressman Knowland of Alameda. Mrs. Knowland is getting right out among the workers, drumming up votes for her husband, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate. She is going around the State in her auto, speaking noon hours and in the evenings in factory yards and in public squares. Her campaign is unusual inasmuch as her husband is held at Washington with his duties in the House, while his wife is looking after his fences. Mrs. Knowland is a live wire. Recently she addressed 1,000 men during the noon hour at the Union Iron works, speaking from her automobile.
